College Access and Opportunity Guide 2011 , College Student's Guide to Merit and Other No-need Funding, 1996-1998 Gail A. Schlachter,R. David Weber,1996 Programs that focus on merit instead of financial need the programs award money solely on the basis of career plans academic record creative activities writing ability research skills religious or ethnic background military or organizational activities athletic success and even pure luck in random drawings Financial Aid for the Disabled and Their Families, 1996-1998 Reference Service Press,Gail A. Schlachter,R. David Weber,1996-03 Millions of dollars in financial aid have been set aside for America s largest minority the 43 million Americans with disabilities and members of their families In fact more money is available today than ever before This funding is open to applicants at any level high school through postdoctorate professional for study research travel training career development emergencies assistive technology specially adapted housing and many other purposes There s only one publication that can put information about these funds at your finger tips the 1996 1998 edition of Financial Aid for the Disabled and Their Families Here are some of the 900 funding programs you ll find described in this directory up to 10 000 a year for blind undergraduate or graduate students up to 42 500 in home improvement loans 2 000 a year to undergraduates with an immune deficiency disease 5 000 to performing musicians who are physically challenged up to 500 000 in loans for the disabled to operate small businesses 3 200 to purchase computers or other assistive equipment You also get a list of state sources of benefits including vocational rehabilitation offices an annotated bibliography of 60 key directories that can lead you to even more financial aid opportunities and a set of indexes that let you search the directory by program title sponsoring organization geographic coverage subject field and application deadline This directory was chosen as one of the outstanding reference books of the year by the New York Public Library which praised Reference Service Press for its excellent contribution in an area of publishing where quality is at a premium Online Investing Hacks Bonnie Biafore,2004 To streamline the amount of time it takes to research analyze and manage an online portfolio for better results this unique collection of tips shows experienced investors how to find existing software tools that work and build their own High School Senior's Guide to Merit and Other No-Need Funding 2005-2007 Gail Ann Schlachter,R. David Weber,2005-05 There are dozens of other funding directories describing college aid But none of them are like this one First unlike other directories the High School Senior s Guide focuses only on merit and no need scholarships Not one of the programs covered here requires financial need Plus only programs open to college bound high school seniors are included No more scanning through hundreds of listings that apply to currently enrolled college students not to you In addition the entries here are grouped by discipline so you can go directly to the area you want to study Not sure what your major will be No problem There s even a section listing programs that are open to support studies in any area The High School Senior s Guide provides the only way to find money for college based solely on academic record writing or artistic ability speech making skills athletic success high school club membership religious or ethnic background parents military or organizational activities and even pure luck in random drawings Perhaps that's why College Financial Aid gave the High School Senior's Guide 4 stars its highest rating College Student's Guide to Merit and Other No-need Funding, 2005-2007 Gail A. Schlachter, R. David Weber, 2005 Described in this unique directory are nearly 1 300 merit scholarships and other no need funding program available specifically to students already in college or students thinking of returning to college This book was named by Choice as the best of the best and included in its list of outstanding Academic Titles of the Year College Student's Guide to Merit & Other Non Need Funding Gail A.
