The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints Library of Congress,American Library Association. Committee on Resources of American Libraries. National Union Catalog Subcommittee,1971     Branding Books Across the Ages Helleke Braber,Jeroen Dera,Jos Joosten,Maarten Steenmeijer,2025-10-01 For many literature and marketing are considered opposite phenomena This book discusses cases in which the two are closely connected It argues that literature is subject to the same mechanisms as other commercial products our experience of literary texts is prefigured by brands trademarks that identify a product and differentiate it from its competitors From the early modern period onwards literary authors and their texts are constantly branded and have been both the object and the trailblazer of a complex marketing process The authors of this volume analyze this branding process throughout the centuries focusing on the Netherlands To what extent is our experience of Dutch literature prefigured by brands and what role does branding play when introducing European authors in the Dutch literary field or vice versa By answering these questions Branding Books Across the Ages seeks to show how literary scholars understand branding a phenomenon that has long been intertwined with literature     Koloniale Geschiedenis: deel.

Reference Guide to World Literature Tom Pendergast,2003 Covers writers from the ancient Greeks to 20th century authors Includes biographical bibliographical entries on nearly 500 writers and approximately 550 entries focusing on significant works of world literature Each author entry provides a detailed overview of the writer's life and works Work entries cover a particular piece of world literature in detail     European Commercial Expansion in Early Modern Asia

Om Prakash,2020-04-28 Regular commercial contacts between Europe and Asia date back to at least the early years of the Christian era but the pattern of trade underwent a structural modification following the Portuguese discovery of a route to the East Indies via the Cape of Good Hope This volume illustrates the consequences of the arrival of large numbers of Europeans in the East Europeans both participated in modified and exploited existing trade relationships in the Indian Ocean and the Pacific The studies reprinted here show how some environments such as Japan were hostile whilst most states welcomed the European commercial contact The necessity for Europeans to pay for Asian goods using precious metals is emphasised by the inclusion of articles in monetary transfers in Asian trade a phenomenon which provides a link between economic developments in the Americas and those in Asia from the 16th century onwards
