Cunningham Wake Forest University ISBN 0 8013 3246 X Reading and Writing in Elementary School Classrooms 4e was well conceived and will only grow in popularity as more and more teachers seek support for the teaching of reading. The book is a great effort on the part of the authors. Professor Lee T. Person, Ed.D., Associate Dean for Education, Ottawa University. It's clear that these authors know the research, know the history of reading instruction, and know the classroom. They have a keen sense of how to help the teachers move forward in understanding and implementing good literacy practices by utilizing new insights without being iconoclastic. Professor James Rooks, Calvin College. The pedagogical elements of the text are excellent. One of the things I like best about the book is the inclusion of the appropriate activities within each chapter so that students can read about and practice the concepts first hand. Professor Luther R. Kirk, Longwood University. Author Bio: David W. Moore serves as a Professor of Education at Arizona State University, West, where his teaching centers about literacy development. His publication record balances research reports, professional articles, book chapters, and books.
