Shaped by the Gospel Timothy Keller,2016-03-15 It is easy to assume that if we understand the gospel and preach it faithfully our ministry will necessarily be shaped by it but this is not true Many churches claim to be gospel centered but do not have a ministry that is shaped by centered on and empowered through the gospel The implications of the gospel have not yet worked their way into the fabric of how that church does ministry Gospel centered ministry is more theologically driven than program driven To pursue it we must spend time reflecting on the essence the truths and the very patterns of the gospel itself The gospel is neither religion nor irreligion but something else entirely a third way of relating to God through grace In

Center Church Timothy Keller,2012-09-04 Practical and Gospel centered thoughts on how to have a fruitful ministry by one of America s leading and most beloved pastor Many church leaders are struggling to adapt to a culture that values individuality above loyalty to a group or institution There have been so many church growth and effective ministry books in the past few decades that it s hard to know where to start or which ones will provide useful and honest insight Based on over twenty years of ministry in New York City Timothy Keller takes a unique approach that measures a ministry s success neither by numbers nor purely by the faithfulness of its leaders but on the biblical grounds of fruitfulness Center Church outlines a balanced theological vision for ministry organized around three core commitments Gospel centered The gospel of grace in Jesus Christ changes everything from our hearts to our community to the world It completely reshapes the content tone and strategy of all that we do City centered With a positive approach toward our culture we learn to affirm that cities are wonderful strategic and under served places for gospel ministry Movement centered Instead of building our own tribe we seek the prosperity and peace of our community as we are led by the Holy Spirit Between a pastor s doctrinal beliefs and ministry practices should be a well conceived vision for how to bring the gospel to bear on the particular cultural setting and historical moment This is something more practical than just doctrine but much more theological than how to steps for carrying out a ministry Once this vision is in place it leads church leaders to make good decisions on how to worship disciple evangelize serve and engage culture in their field of ministry whether in a city suburb or small town Tim Keller Core Church
