National Business Employment Weekly Cover Letters National Business Employment Weekly, Taunee S. Besson, 1995-08-11. Write Powerful Letters That Win Over Your Future Employer. Even the best resume can fall flat if it is accompanied by an ineffective cover letter. With this invaluable book, you'll learn how to write cover letters that jump out from the pile and grab the employer's attention. Written by an award-winning columnist at the National Business Employment Weekly, today's leading career resource, it's packed with practical tips and psychological insights that will help set you apart from the competition and win you an interview. Starting with the basic elements of the cover letter, you'll get expert advice on how to customize letters for responding to a want ad, contacting an executive search firm, or reaching out to target companies with plenty of sample letters from successful job hunters. Special chapters cover the unique problems of first-time job seekers, women returning to the work force, career changers, and seasoned professionals, including information that will show you how to turn apparent liabilities into assets. You'll learn what three elements must be included in an effective cover letter. How to read between the lines of a want ad to discover what they really want. When thank-you notes are necessary, always, and how to write one that makes you the top candidate instead of a runner-up. How to write a follow-up letter when you haven't heard from an employer. What a broadcast letter is and why it can be the best choice. How to mount an effective direct-mail campaign without papering the world. Don't let a weak cover letter short-circuit your chances. This valuable guide will show you how to create powerful job-search letters that will put you in the job you want.

How to Write a Cover Letter that Will Get You Hired. In this book, you will find some great tips and suggestions to help guide you towards developing that cover letter that is going to help you land the job you're seeking. The job market is becoming more and more overcrowded, making it harder to get noticed. Most jobs today are getting far too many applications. Due to the advanced technology that companies have to work with today, it enables them to post their job openings to a mass audience. With companies being able to target a larger audience, this boils down to more competition for every job out there. Many people are out there applying for jobs that they should never bother to apply for in the first place. Hiring managers and recruiters end up literally swamped with far too many applications than they have time to read. Often many of these will have no cover letters or have letters that are just too generic and add no special value that makes them stand out from the competitors' letters. With the information provided within these pages, you will learn how to develop a cover letter that is going to get noticed and stand out from the crowd or pile of other applications.
