A serene sunset scene with a bright orange sun low on the horizon, casting a warm glow over a calm body of water. On the left, a dark, silhouetted forested hill rises from the water's edge. A long, straight path or pier extends from the bottom center towards the horizon, leading the viewer's eye into the distance. Bare tree branches are visible in the upper right corner. The overall mood is peaceful and contemplative.

Before writing these thoughts I spent ten years studying the elements which contribute to the essence of life at length This study was not limited and used to any education system Instead the conscious mind and soul was applied to those visible and invisible entities which could help us understand the life better whether they exist around or within These books hold the same consciousness It is difficult to abridge what they have as every thought has its own foundation But they truly belong to us our way of pronouncing and acknowledging life and the different contemporary connections between body mind and soul
