

A photograph of the facade of a building, likely the Internal Revenue Service building. The building is constructed of light-colored stone blocks. A sign is mounted on the wall, reading "INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE". To the left of the sign, there is a large traffic light pole with multiple signal heads. To the right, another traffic light pole is visible, showing a green light. The building features classical architectural elements, including a decorative cornice above the sign and a pedimented entrance below it.
