Make / Believe John Hartley,2025-01-23 This book illustrates that mediated popular culture and science based knowledge systems entangled and compromised as both have become are still a robust crucible for system change for the future when they combine forces Planetary crises require responses from everyone This means that collective action is not simply a scientific or political problem It is a problem of culture and media But modern politics journalism and science were not designed for global climate action They ve divided humans into competitive and often hostile we and they groups Identity news and knowledge are all weaponized Culture makes groups groups make knowledge and knowledge makes enemies What can be done to prevent global conflict and the drift to war Make Believe turns to popular culture and social media to argue for an alternative storyline While the Great Powers are making new enemies emergent classes led by children are using planetary connectivity to make new worlds A digital planet generates new kinds of strategic stories for pan human action based on difference intersectionality and cooperation for a sustainable Earth system Make Believe shows how alternatives to the Great Game of global contestation are gathering strength in unlikely places among women children lifestyle and pop culture Popular digital media literacy is now a prerequisite for the remediation of the planet
