Twentieth-Century Theologians Philip Kennedy,2010-01-30 One needs to be a lunatic to become a Christian the 19th century Danish philosopher Soren Kierkegaard once observed Had he lived in the 20th century he might have discerned even more of an obstacle to faith For during the last century the human condition changed more rapidly than during any previous era taking that condition far away from the historical circumstances in which Christianity was born In his new book Philip Kennedy explores the ways Christian theologians of the 20th century tried to live a productive religious life in a world overtaken by massive upheaval and innovation The book is distinctive in a number of respects First it differs from other surveys of theology by adopting a biographical method examining the lives of its subjects in historical context Second it is more progressive than its competitors covering many theologians other than white male professors especially women who have worked outside the academy or on the margins of the churches Third it is international focusing on theologians in all the continents of the world rather than just Europe or North America Fourth it makes no assumptions that its readers are religious or that theology is uniquely credible There is a need for a sensitive new textbook reassessing the subject in the light of modern concerns and scepticism about religion This book meets that need Modern Christian Theology Christopher Ben Simpson,2020-01-09 Christopher Ben Simpson tells the story of modern Christian theology against the backdrop of the history of modernity itself The book tells the many ways that theology became modern while seeing how modernity arose in no small part from theology These intertwined stories progress through four parts In Part I Emerging Modernity Simpson goes from the beginnings of modernity in the late Middle Ages through the Protestant Reformation and Renaissance Humanism to the creative tension between Enlightenments and Awakenings of the eighteenth century Part II The Long Nineteenth Century presents the great movements and figures arising out of these creative tension from Romanticism and Schleiermacher to Ritschianism and Vatican I Part III Twentieth Century Crisis and Modernity proceeds through the revolutionary theologies of period of the World Wars such as that of Karl Barth or nouvelle theologie this part includes a thorough section on modern Eastern Orthodox theology Finally Part IV The Late Modern Supernova lays out the diverse panoply of recent theologies from the various liberation theologies to the revisionist the secular the postliberal and the postsecular Designed for classroom use this volume includes the following features boxes chart diagrams visual organizations of the information presented included throughout e g lists of key points visual organizations of systematic ideas in a given thinker lists of significant works lists of significant dates brief outlines of the basic structure of some major theological works both a one page chapter title table of the contents and an expanded multipage table of contents chapter at a glance overview outline at the beginning of each chapter specific references to secondary works and key primary works in English translation
