Things can change if you stop accepting the unacceptable.

an arrow pointing up when it is really pointing down AH's errors together with many other clues lead McCloskey to some very interesting conclusions about how we perceive the world He develops theoretical claims about visual subsystems the nature of visual location and orientation representations attention and spatial representations the role of the visual system in mental imagery and the levels of the visual system implicated in awareness Visual Reflections makes a fascinating and compelling case that we can often learn more about a process when it goes awry than when it functions flawlessly
