Family Violence from a Communication Perspective Dudley D. Cahn, Sally A. Lloyd, 1996-04-16 Going beyond the traditional psychological and sociological approaches, this ground-breaking volume presents a new theoretical framework for understanding and resolving abusive family interactions. It takes a communication perspective to examine the interactional processes at the core of domestic abuse, aggression, and violence. Covering spouse, child, elderly, parent, and courtship abuse, the contributors explore both commonalities and differences in emotional, psychological, verbal, and sexual abuse. They illustrate how these different types of abuse stem from problematic communication patterns integral to the power imbalance inherent in abusive relationships. The contributors also suggest ways of modifying these patterns. The Family Violence David M. Lawson, 2015-01-14 Counselors in training, educators, and clinicians will benefit greatly from this in-depth and thought-provoking look at family violence, its effects, and treatment options. This book examines the major issues and current controversies in the field, provides background information on each type of family violence, and offers strategies for combating domestic abuse. In an informative discussion designed to enhance counselors' ability to assess and treat each type of family violence, Dr. Lawson covers both well-recognized forms of maltreatment, such as the abuse of women and children, and less-understood issues, such as female-on-male intimacy violence, parent and elder abuse, same-sex violence, and dating violence and stalking. Case studies throughout the text illustrate clinical applications in action, and recommended readings are provided for further study.
