Beginning with a ceasefire agreement in early 2002 for almost five years a series of peace talks between the two sides took place in locations ranging from Thailand and Japan to Norway Germany and Switzerland To End a Civil War tells the story of trying to bring peace to Sri Lanka In particular it tells the story of how a faraway European nation Norway came to play a central role in efforts to end the conflict and what its small dedicated team of mediators did in their untiring efforts to reach what ultimately proved the elusive goal of a negotiated peace In doing so it fills a critical gap in our understanding of the Sri Lankan conflict But it also illuminates in detail a much wider problem the intense fragility that surrounds peace processes and the extraordinary lengths to which their proponents often stretch in order to secure their progress Spooked Daniel Baldino, 2013-11-01 Terrorist acts most notably 9 11 and the Bali bombings transformed our attitudes to the secretive world of intelligence surveillance and security In this book a prominent group of writers including Michael Mori Ben Saul Anne Aly and Peter Leahy lay bare the facts about spying and security in post 9 11 Australia Their compelling book cuts through panic and fear mongering to ask hard questions Is ASIO unaccountable Is the money we spend on security worth it Is cyber terrorism an urgent threat Are our spies up to the job and how do we know anyway as we only hear about their failures Is WikiLeaks good for human rights Are we trading our privacy for a false sense of security Spooked untangles the half truths conspiracy theories and controversies about the war on terror and is a welcome antidote to misinformation and alarm

Postcolonial Gateways and Walls Daria Tunca, Janet Wilson, 2016-11-07 Metaphors are ubiquitously used in the humanities to bring the tangibility of the concrete world to the elaboration of abstract thought Drawing on this cognitive function of metaphors this collection of essays focuses on the evocative figures of the gateway and the wall to reflect on the state of postcolonial studies Some chapters on such topics as maze making in Canada and the Berlin Wall in the writings of New Zealand authors foreground the modes of articulation between literal borders and emotional dis connections while others examine how artefacts ranging from personal letters to clothes may be conceptualized as metaphorical gateways and walls that lead or conversely regulate access to specific forms of cultural expression and knowledge Following this line of metaphorical thought postcolonial studies itself may be said to function as either barrier or pathway to further modes of enquiry This much is suggested by two complementary sets of contributions on the one hand those that contend that the canonical centre periphery paradigm and the related writing back model have prevented scholars from recognizing the depth and magnitude of cross cultural influences between civilizations on the other those that argue that the scope of traditional postcolonial models may be fruitfully widened to include territories such as post imperial Turkey a geographical and cultural gateway between East and West that features in several of the essays included in this collection Ultimately all of the contributions testify to the fact that postcolonial studies is a field whose borders must be constantly redrawn and whose paradigms need to be continually reshaped and rebuilt to remain relevant in the contemporary world in other words the collection s varied approaches suggest that the discipline itself is permanently under construction Readers are therefore invited to perform a critical inspection of the postcolonial construction site CONTRIBUTORS Vera Alexander Elisabeth Bekers Devon Campbell Hall Simran Chadha Carmen Concilio Margaret Daymond Marta Dvo k Claudia Dupp Elena Furlanetto Gareth Griffiths John C Hawley Sissy Helff Marie Herbillon Deepika Marya Bronwyn Mills Padmini Mongia Golnar Nabizadeh Gerhard Stilz
