Costopoulos,2015-04-13 Terrorism is war in a new form expanding inexorably into the lives of peaceful citizens worldwide rendering even mundane activities potentially dangerous In this captivating tale of terrorism in America complacency is challenged with the startling reality that these violent acts can actually happen in the United States Set predominantly in South Central Pennsylvania Manhattan and Washington DC with a side trip to Russia a marvelous cast of talented and unpredictable characters attempt to unravel a cluster of terrifying events that appear to involve one mysterious individual. The story takes astonishing turns during his apprehension and trial that ultimately lead to a provocative sobering conclusion. The conundrum of free will and origins of good and evil in our society are the basis for this imaginative story. Readers will experience how an assemblage of skilled attorneys, judges and other members of the US criminal justice system wrestle with moral, ethical and legal issues surrounding a defendant who defies all known precedents and leaves them powerless to defend or convict.
