Trans Wesleyan Poetry Series:

Trans Hilda Raz,2021-05-13 This elegant and moving collection of poems grew out of Hilda Raz's experience with her son's journey to a transgender identity Born Sarah now Aaron Raz's child has had a profound impact on her understanding of what it means to be a family to be whole and to know oneself The collection moves between past and present allowing Raz to reflect on her own childhood and on her experience with breast cancer to find ways to connect with Aaron The journey takes us from intimacy to strangeness and back again from denial to humor to grief and rage but always laced with love and acceptance Trans means across through over to or on the other side and beyond This book documents some major transformations of body self society and spirit that art requires and life allows The poems are accessible and finely wrought They are equally testaments to Raz's insistence on making an order out of chaos of finding ways to create and understand and eventually accept new definitions of self and family The physical and sensuous language of Raz's poems and their humanity keep them intimately bound to the world and to the senses
