Gómez,Marlene Hansen Esplin,2023-11-30

This collection explores the relationships between acts of translation and the movement of peoples across linguistic cultural and physical borders centering the voices of migrant writers and translators in literatures and language cultures of the Global South To offer a counterpoint to existing scholarship this book examines translation practices as forms of both home building and un homing for communities in migration Drawing on scholarship from translation studies as well as eco criticism decolonial thought and gender studies the book s three parts critically reflect on different dimensions of the intersection of translation and migration in a diverse range of literary genres and media Part I looks at self translation collaboration and cocreation as modes of expression born out of displacement and exile Part II considers radical strategies of literary translation and the threats and opportunities they bring in situations of detention and border policing Part III looks ahead to the ways in which translation can act as a powerful means of fostering responsibility solidarity and community in building an inclusive multilingual public sphere even in the face of climate crisis This dynamic volume will be of particular interest to students and scholars in translation studies migration and mobility studies postcolonial studies and comparative literature The Introduction of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution NonCommercial NoDerivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 International license 4 0 license

The Publisher, 1911 Narratives of Mistranslation Denise Kripper, 2023-01-17 This book offers unique insights into the role of the translator in today's globalized world exploring Latin American literature featuring translators and interpreters as protagonists in which prevailing understandings of the act of translation are challenged and upended The volume looks to the fictional turn as a fruitful source of critical inquiry in translation studies showcasing the potential for recent Latin American novels and short stories in Spanish to shed light on the complex dynamics and conditions under which translators perform their task Kripper unpacks how the study of these works reveals translation not as an activity with communication as its end goal but rather as a mediating and mediated process shaped by the unique manipulations and motivations of translators and the historical and cultural contexts in which they work In exploring the fictional representations of translators the book also outlines pedagogical approaches and offers discussion questions for the implementation of translators narratives in translation language and literature courses Narratives of Mistranslation will be of interest to scholars and educators in translation studies especially those working in literary translation and translation pedagogy Latin American literature world literature and Latin American studies
