NEVILLE,2014-11-17 If one is looking for answers to the meaning of life and how to make a happier richer existence e g relationships finances health then Nevilles teaching from personal experience testimonies from students and his amazing visions paralleling and explaining the mysteries of the Old and New Testament will answer those questions Learn his techniques unleash your power to create believe in your imaginary acts and no power in this world can stop the desired results from appearing in your world Its the only creative power one that everyone is operating moment to moment Learning how to direct it deliberately is essential to producing loving positive changes in ones life These 1963 lectures also begin a nine year odyssey of discovering the deepest meanings of six visions of the end that had unfolded in Neville 19591963 The visions are the signs that this long journey as limited man the terrible opacity and contraction is over that the purpose of human life has been completed man has endured and overcome six thousand years of amnesia plus the fires of experience and has emerged victorious Hes been transformed by his inner being I Am or God back into the divinity he truly is and always was

The Transformations of Man Lewis Mumford,2021-12-30 Originally published in 1957 this volume compares the 20th Century transformation of human life to the revolution which swept early man into the first civilized communities It shows how each radical new stage of human development grew out of changes in human personality and consciousness such as the invention of language and symbols the origins of universal religions and the mechanization of everyday life Despite the threat that the author foresees from an over reliance on automation the book maintains that humanity still has the means spiritual personal and technological to create a sustainable future for itself by increasing the usefulness and freedom of all men

Haboucha,2021-02-25 This monumental book first published in 1992 represents a major contribution to Sephardic and Hispanic studies as well as to comparative folklore scholarship in a worldwide perspective After many years of fieldwork and extensive archival investigations in Spain Israel and the United States the author has brought together and analysed a massive body of primary sources This is the first collection of Sephardic narratives offered to the English speaking reader and constitutes an important addition to the understanding of Sephardic cultural tradition Type and Motif-Index of the Folktales of England and North America Ernest W. Motif Index of the Folktales of England and North America Folktales of Newfoundland (RLE Folklore) Herbert Halpert, J.D.A. Widdowson, 2015-02-20 This collection of Newfoundland folk narratives first published in 1996 grew out of extensive fieldwork in folk culture in the province. The intention was to collect as broad a spectrum of traditional material as possible and Folktales of Newfoundland is notable not only for the number and quality of its narratives but also for the format in which they are presented. A special transcription system conveys to the reader the accents and rhythms of each performance and the endnote to each tale features an analysis of the narrator's language. In addition Newfoundland has preserved many aspects of English and Irish folk tradition some of which are no longer active in the countries of their origin. Working from the premise that traditions virtually unknown in England might still survive in active form in Newfoundland the researchers set out to discover if this was in fact the case

Tales from Spanish Picaresque Novels James Wesley

Childers, 1977-01-01 Story motifs from all of the thirty major picaresque novels of Spain's Golden Age present the picaro as a nomadic rogue who survived by cleverness and deception. Though his tricks constitute the main interest in the novels the picaro's satirical comments give a wealth of information on the social political and religious background of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries in Spain. This motif index based on the classification system of Stith Thompson includes an informative and analytical Introduction and a Summary which precisely categorizes the appearance of various motifs

The Transformation of Man Lewis Mumford, 1972

A Motif-Index of Traditional Polynesian Narratives Bacil F. Kirtley, 2019-09-30 This reference work analyzes and classifies the story themes of Polynesian myths, tales and legends according to an internationally employed system developed by Stith Thompson in his Motif Index of Folk Literature 1955-1958. Thousands of tales including those from almost all of the major original collections from the Polynesian area have been examined and their thematic contents cataloged in this work. In his introduction the author explains the concept of the motif as a basis for cataloging. He quotes from Professor Thompson's definition of a motif the smallest element in a tale having the power to persist in tradition for example gods, marvelous creatures, magic objects and certain kinds of incidents. The author believes the function of an index of motifs is to cite bibliographical sources of narratives containing these viable often irreducible story elements and thus to provide the investigator of specific story ideas with comparative information. The present work is an attempt to survey thoroughly the totality of Polynesian oral tradition and to indicate the distribution and relationships of narrative materials. Not since the publication of Roland B. Dixon's work on Oceanic mythology in 1916 has this been attempted. This index will be an invaluable reference tool for anyone doing research in Oceanic ethnology and folklore.
