Conversations with Dorothy Allison Mae Miller Claxton, 2012-05-09 Since the publication of her groundbreaking novel Bastard Out of Carolina Dorothy Allison b. 1949 has been known along with Larry Brown and Lee Smith as a purveyor of the working class contemporary South. Allison has frequently used her position through passionate lectures and enthusiastic interviews to give voice to issues dear to her: poverty, working class life, domestic violence, feminism, and women's relationships in the contemporary South and gay/lesbian life. Often called a writer, rock star, and a cult icon, Allison is a true performer of the written word. At the same time, Allison also takes the craft of writing very seriously. In this collection, spanning almost two decades, Allison the performer and Allison the careful craftsperson both emerge, creating a portrait of a complex woman. In the absence of a biography of Allison's life, Conversations with Dorothy Allison presents Allison's perspectives on her life, literature, and her conflicted role as a public figure.
