Travels With A Tangerine:

Travels with a Tangerine Tim Mackintosh-Smith, 2012-03-15 Ibn Battutah set out in 1325 from his native Tangier on the pilgrimage to Mecca By the time he returned twenty nine years later he had visited most of the known world travelling three times the distance Marco Polo covered Spiritual backpacker social climber temporary hermit and failed ambassador he braved brigands blisters and his own prejudices The outcome was a monumental travel classic Captivated by this indefatigable man award winning travel writer Tim Mackintosh Smith set out on his own eventful journey retracing the Moroccan s eccentric trip from Tangier to Constantinople Tim proves himself a perfect companion to this distant traveller and the result is an amazing blend of personalities history and contemporary observation Travels with a Tangerine Tim Mackintosh-Smith, 2004-06-08 In 1325 the great Arab traveler Ibn Battutah set out from his native Tangier in North Africa on pilgrimage to Mecca By the time he returned nearly thirty years later he had seen most of the known world covering three times the distance allegedly traveled by the great Venetian explorer Marco Polo some 75 000 miles in all Captivated by Ibn Battutah s account of his journey the Arabic scholar and award winning travel writer Tim Mackintosh Smith set out to follow in the peripatetic Moroccan s footsteps Traversing Egyptian deserts and remote islands in the Arabian Sea visiting castles in Syria and innumerable souks in medieval Islam s great cities Mackintosh Smith sought clues to Ibn Battutah s life and times encountering the ghost of IB in everything from place names in Tangier alone a hotel street airport and ferry bear IB s name to dietary staples to an Arabic online dating service and introducing us to a world of unimaginable wonders By necessity Mackintosh Smith s journey may have cut some corners I only wish I had the odd thirty years to spare and Ibn Battutah s enviable knack of extracting large amounts of cash robes and slaves from compliant rulers But in this wry evocative and uniquely engaging travelogue he spares no effort in giving readers an unforgettable glimpse into both the present day and fourteenth century Islamic worlds Travel Writing and Re-Enactment Lucas Tromly, 2023-09-07 Travel Writing and Re Enactment Echotourism explores the popular subgenre of travel narratives that re enact historically prominent journeys Drawing on philosopher Walter Benjamin this monograph reads such re enactments as quests for aura in which travellers seek to capture a sense of distinction and historical profundity Travel Writing and Re Enactment frames the re enactment of past journeys in a number of contexts including Benjamin s writing on mechanical reproduction Judith Butler s work on gender performance and postmodern parody Echotourist journeys are surprisingly contingent and precarious and force travellers to navigate historical changes involving empire gender and travel practice in densely performative ways Through close readings of contemporary travel narratives this monograph considers the legacies of Lord Byron Charles Darwin Graham Greene Mary Kingsley and Ernest Shackleton among others Travel Writing and Re Enactment examines the way literary re enactment expresses and sometimes confounds the desire to find meaning through travel in the contemporary world The Arabian Desert in English Travel Writing Since 1950 Jenny Walker, 2022-12-30 Broadly this book is about the Arabian desert as the locus of exploration by a long tradition of British travellers that includes T E Lawrence and Wilfred Thesiger more specifically it is about those who since 1950 have followed in their literary footsteps In analysing modern works covering a land greater than the sum of its geographical parts the discussion identifies outmoded tropes that continue to impinge upon the perception of the Middle East today while recognising that the laboured binaries of East and West desert and sown noble and savage have outrun their course Where however only a barren legacy of latent Orientalism may have been expected the author finds instead a rich seam of writing that exhibits diversity of purpose and insight contributing to contemporary discussions on travel and tourism intercultural representation and environmental awareness By addressing a lack of scholarly attention towards recent additions to the genre this study illustrates for the benefit of students of travel literature or indeed anyone interested in Arabia how desert writing under the emerging configurations of globalisation postcolonialism and ecocriticism acts as a microcosm of the kinds of ethical and emotional dilemmas confronting today s travel writers in the world s most extreme regions Orientalism Revisited Ian Richard Netton,2012 The publication of Edward Said s Orientalism in 1978 marks the inception of orientalism as a discourse Since then Orientalism has remained highly polemical and has become a widely employed epistemological tool Three decades on this volume sets out to survey analyse and revisit the state of the Orientalist debate both past and present The leitmotiv of this book is its emphasis on an intimate connection between art land and voyage Orientalist art of all kinds frequently derives from a consideration of the land which is encountered on a voyage or pilgrimage a relationship which until now has received little attention Through adopting a thematic and prosopographical approach and attempting to locate the fundamentals of the debate in the historical and cultural contexts in which they arose this book brings together a diversity of opinions analyses and arguments
