captain's buried treasure. They outfit a ship with a crew and supplies and set sail. Once at sea, however, Jim learns that the hired crew has plans to win the treasure for themselves and are willing to kill whoever necessary in order to do so. This sets the stage for the ship's landing at Treasure Island where a battle ensues between the pirates also referred to as mutineers and buccaneers and the men loyal to the ship's original captain, Captain Smollett. The novel is divided into six parts of roughly six chapters each. In Part 1, Jim describes the behavior of the old sea captain who visits the inn and the dangers he faced in securing the treasure map from the sea captain's chest. In Part 2, Jim goes to Bristol and sets sail. It is here that Jim first meets Long John Silver who ultimately proves to be the dangerous and violent leader of the pirates as well as Captain Smollett, the rightful captain of the ship. The ship anchors at Treasure Island in Part 3 and the battle between the pirates and the captain's men begins. Jim goes ashore alone, witnesses John Silver murdering an honest hand, and encounters a marooned man named Ben Gunn. In Part 4, the captain defends himself against the advances of pirates onboard the anchored ship and the doctor ferries supplies back and forth to a stockade, a fenced-in and protected log cabin in a clearing on the island. After an attempt at bargaining fails, the pirates attack the stockade but most of the captain's men survive. In Part 5, Jim escapes from the stockade, finds Ben Gunn's boat on the beach, and commandeers the ship. Onboard, he finds an injured pirate who helps Jim steer the ship to the north of the island before attacking him with a knife. Jim survives the pirate's attack and safely anchors the ship once more but shortly after he returns to the stockade which has been taken over by the pirates. In Part 6, Jim joins the pirates led by John Silver on a hunt for the treasure. They find the supposed treasure site empty, however, and are attacked by the captain's men. Jim rejoins the honest men and together they load the treasure which had been stored in a cave by Ben Gunn onto the ship. They safely sail home with John Silver who escapes at a port along the way.

From the moment young Jim Hawkins first encounters the sinister Blind Pew at the Admiral Benbow Inn until the climactic battle for treasure on a tropic isle, the novel creates scenes and characters that have fired the imaginations of generations of readers. Written by a superb prose stylist, a master of both action and atmosphere, the story centers upon the conflict between good and evil but in this case, a particularly engaging form of evil.
