Antifascist Education Tyson E. Lewis, 2020-02-01 Walter Benjamin's Antifascist Education is the first comprehensive analysis of educational themes across the entirety of the critical theorist's diverse writings Starting with Benjamin's early reflections on teaching and learning Tyson E. Lewis argues that the aesthetic and cultural forms to which Benjamin so often turned namely radio broadcasts children's theatrical productions collections cityscapes public cinemas and word games swell with educational potentialities What emerges from Lewis's reading is a constellational curriculum composed of minor practices such as poor teaching absentminded learning and nondurational studying This curriculum carries political significance offering an antidote to past and present forms of fascist manipulation hardness and coldness Walter Benjamin's Antifascist Education is a testimony to Benjamin's belief that everyone is an educator and everyone needs to be educated and everything is education

Adorno's Critique of Political Economy Dirk Braunstein, 2022-11-21 To this day there persists a widespread assumption that Adorno's references to Marx and especially to Marx's critique of political economy represent a relic from an early and short lived stage of Adorno's theoretical development On the basis of relevant and largely unpublished textual sources this book refutes this thesis while showing that the centre of Adorno's critical theory of society is occupied by a critique not only of political economy but of economy in general

Agamben and the Signature of Astrology Paul Colilli, 2015-10-16 The work of Giorgio Agamben one of the world's most important living philosophers has been the object of much scrutiny Yet there is one dimension of his thought that remains unexamined by scholars the presence of the ancient science of astrology in his writings This book the first of its kind identifies the astrological elements and explains the implications of their usage by Agamben In so doing this study challenges us to imagine Agamben's thought in a radically new light A critical account of the presence of astrology and related themes in Agamben's writings ranging from the earlier works to the more recent publications illustrates that the astrological signature constitutes a mode of philosophical archaeology that allows for an enhanced understanding of concepts that are central to his works such as potentiality the signature bare life and biopolitics extended essays sketches aphorisms and fragments this volume shows the range of Walter Benjamin's writing His topics here include poetry fiction drama history religion love violence morality and mythology Totalitarian Space and the Destruction of Aura Saladdin Ahmed,2019-02-14 We live today within a system in which state and corporate power aim to render space flat transparent and uniform for only then can it be truly controlled The gaze of power and the commodity form are capable of infiltrating even the darkest of corners and often we invite them into our most private spaces We do so as a matter of convenience but also to placate ourselves and cope with the alienation inherent in our everyday lives The resulting dominant space can best be termed totalitarian It is space stripped of uniqueness deprived of the spatial aura necessary for authentic experience In Totalitarian Space and the Destruction of Aura Saladdin Ahmed sets out to help us grasp what has been lost before no trace remains He draws attention to that which we might prefer not to see but despite the bleakness of this indictment of reality the book also offers a message of hope Namely it is only once we comprehend the magnitude of the threat to our spatial experience and our own complicity in sustaining this system that we can begin to resist the totalizing forces at work Walter Benjamin Walter Benjamin,2005 Walter Benjamin Walter Benjamin,2005 Walter Benjamin's Transit Stephanie Polsky,2010 Applies the lens of Gilles Deleuze and Felix Guattari's philosophy to the critical writings of Walter Benjamin the latter devised amid and atmosphere of emergent fascism in Europe between two World Wars This book discusses Walter Benjamin's critic and contemporary Martin Heidegger

Unframed Rahaab Allana,2022-12-20 Unframed presents some of the complex dimensions of South Asia oriented lens based media specifically tracing the evolution of photography in the subcontinent from the nineteenth century to the present Through intersecting trajectories thirty one texts arranged in five distinct yet interdependent sections examine the general history particular meta histories of the medium in our region reflecting the depth of image practices in India Pakistan Sri Lanka Bangladesh Nepal and Myanmar Drawing upon the broader arc of South Asian visual cultures this collection reader analyzes emergent themes testimonies and socio cultural shifts through key discussions around the invention application and consequent proliferation of lens based work Seminal analyses revised for this volume as well as new commissioned essays and a set of interviews with practitioners curators collectively explore the subtle entanglements of memory and space notions of selfhood the blurring of geographic taxonomies the edicts of the gaze the rupture of identity varied dimensions of mirroring othering and the unstable politics of etching moments in time Unframed thereby turns a critical eye upon lyrical and evidentiary frameworks challenging the obduracy of our narrative positions and the conditioned habits of viewing that reinforce our intractable claims to know who and where we are These pages offer fresh insights into how our analogue digital and other hybrid technologies compel us to confront any monolithic history of photography by working through the multiplicity of facts and the singularity of truth Contributors Anoli Perera Aparna Kumar Ashmina Ranjit Aveek Sen Bakirathi Mani Christopher Pinney David Odo Dechen Roder Omar Khan Premjish Achari Rahul Roy Raqs Media Collective Sabeena Gadihoke Sabih Ahmed Sai Htin Linn Htet corporation),2009 Since Conceptualism the field of art has become increasingly accustomed to playing host to its own critique and recent decades have seen institutions engaged in self critique as if by mandate Important notions of legibility autonomy and critical engagement that were once necessary to carve out a space for a critic or critical art publication have transposed themselves onto artistic production proper and are now considered to be of equal importance to artist curator institution and engaged audience member alike This has made the distance that was once the bedrock of criticism increasingly hard to come by compounded by the fact that those same institutions have been faced with an entirely widened base of audiences and professionals who now come to the sphere of art from diverse fields and locations invariably entering and leaving it as they wish This climate of disciplinary reconfiguration and geographic dispersal has made the art world a highly complex place the objective position that once defined the role of a critic has been effectively replaced by a need to understand just how large and varied the whole thing has become The urgent task has now become to engage the new intellectual territories in a way that can revitalise the critical vocabulary of contemporary art Perhaps the most productive way of doing this is through a fresh approach to the function of an art journal as something that situates the multitude of what is currently available and makes that available back to the multitude Publisher s website Close-up Dawn
