Steele,2009-03-30 The house throughout history in every place in the world has been built to provide shelter from the elements The dwellings that have resulted are as different as the people that have built them the social norms that prevailed at the time and place in which they were built and the natural environment that they adapted to Studying them now in a comprehensive way allows us to understand the social political economic and religious conditions that existed for their inhabitants They are a three dimensional record of culture Twenty four pages of color images along with black and white images through three volumes illustrate the homes of people throughout the world The volumes cover ancient times to the late Middle Ages the Renaissance to the Industrial Revolution and the Post Industrial Revolution to the Present Gropius and the Spirit of TAC Arnold Koerte,2025-02-21 This study describes how Walter Gropius of former Bauhaus fame transformed himself from the image of the omnipotent Master Builder to the humble Grope of later years Having come as an emigree from his native Germany to the US he had to cope with quite a different office culture based on teamwork Not the single genius but a collective approach to problem solving was the order of the day coupled with a conciliatory manner of debate among equals With that his legendary firm The Architects Collaborative called TAC for short in Boston was to become the star of the profession in the USA over the course of some 50 years Thanks to the combined talent and vigorous input of seven younger partners the firm succeeded in gaining large commissions at home and internationally The well designed school and campus buildings in New England found their equivalent in large university projects such as in Baghdad and Tunisia Internally the special aura at TAC was personified by a strong collective spirit of individuals in their own right In turn the office attracted a highly motivated staff of apprentices from all around the world Grope s personal charm his humor and encouragement of young people got him life long affection Not the least his pledge for the role of women in the profession left its mark on a whole new generation of architects offices to follow The author was a member of this team from 1962 to 1964 and kept in touch with Grope until his death in 1969 An eye witness account setting straight TAC s merits to Mid Century Modernism The Grove Encyclopedia of American Art Joan M.
