and presenting a practical approach to youth entrepreneurship from the notion of a shared responsibility for the change of mindset from falling into the victims theory dimensions to intelligent ventures and resilience. Their model presents insight on how a paradigm shift among the youths and the society in general from job search to business development may well lead to entrepreneurs and self productive citizens. The authors hope to inspire, inform and encourage today's youths to become tomorrow's entrepreneurs, leaders and good citizens. Making the transition from seeking employment, unemployment or underemployment to self employment entrepreneurship is the primary purpose of this book. The topics include the following: Conquering personal and cultural roadblocks to entrepreneurship; Shifting mental and physical focus from employee to employer; Avoiding common pitfalls in starting and running a sustainable small business; Making the best out of being a youth. The authors urge the Nigerian youths to avoid falling into a victim mentality and start their paradigm shift into the mindsets of entrepreneurs.
