The Papin Sisters Rachel Edwards, Keith Reader, 2001-08-02 The 1933 killing by the Papin sisters of their mistress and her daughter was an act of unexampled violence by women against women whose repercussions have been felt in French culture ever since It received wide journalistic coverage at the time and subsequently prominent literary figures such as Jean Paul Sartre Simone de Beauvoir and Jean Genet have dealt with the case which has also formed the basis of a stage play by Wendy Kesselmann and films by Nico Papatakis Nancy Meckler and Claude Chabrol The case casts fascinating light on French provincial life between the wars the role of women especially unmarried ones in French society and French views of the criminal outsider Its impact on psychoanalytic discourse through the work first of Jacques Lacan then of Francis Dupr and Marie Magdeleine Lessana has also been considerable notably in its contribution to the development of the key notion of the mirror phase The almost obsessive recurrence of the case makes of it a fascinating prism through which to examine multiple aspects of recent French culture
