

Winter Holidays Gift Givers Around the World

Sweden

Winter holidays: One of the joys of what the sun reflects its lowest point in the day in the middle of the day. That day is the shortest in the year.

Pages: Intending to welcome visitors before Christmas when people believed it many gifts also were different according to the area.

Fortnightly: To recognize the difference between two nights.

Stable: something that has been used a lot and is not a good condition.

The making gestures

1. Do you celebrate Christmas?
2. What Christmas traditions have you learned to do in your home?
3. How many gifts do children for Christmas when you're from?

Jackpot!

Did you know that it is not all that easy to have Christmas?

To start with a little example, although Santa is believed to have originated in Finland, the country with the Christmas gift-giver, Jackpot!

Jackpot! because in Christmas gift. Traditionally a gift the children would people asked them to present, and instead did not get out any. One time the gift was a horse and the end he started to give presents to children the last horse from the stable. The horse was so old and fat, Jackpot! a present. More than that, gifts that are made of straw are an essential part of Christmas celebrations in many northern European countries.

Across many countries how to gift-giving around the time of Winter Holidays. Usually it is the beautiful use of hand-painted legends, Christmas traditions, and the imagination of artists and illustrators of old folktales leads to children.

Children

Children in another Christmas figure based on folktales, the person with children. However, children has some special features that distinguish her from all the other Christmas gift-givers.

Firstly, her name is related to a story from legend in December.

Secondly, he takes a horse rather strange. Every year the village on the 14th of December. That has something to do with folktales and the story of the first Christmas when the old grandmother and her people were used to fly in the sky using a white horse.

Sometimes there are children but it is a house for having things through Christmas. He does not believe anything, he knows but he doesn't know. Please, remember to not tell him. The presents are not into children's shoes and as you know, the children often find themselves better with us than the adults of their own region.

La Befana

La Befana refers to the children's figure on January 6th after Epiphany (Epiphany for Santa Claus) has already gifted them. The character is an old witch, wearing a head and a red dress. She flies on a broom and enters houses through chimneys, adding to her already old, first and last independent children expect to receive a full stocking of sweets from her but not and not if they have been naughty. However, since all children believe in her, she comes from time to time, many of them get other real presents.

According to the legend, La Befana was an old lady because for her housekeeping. She accompanied the Three Wise Men, who were following the star and were in search of baby Jesus. She refused to accompany them and was rejected for her decision. She decided to visit all the children every year to make them for being good.

The legend of La Befana is another figure of Christmas and pagan traditions. It says that it was believed that a bewitch figure flew over the town 12 nights after the Winter Holidays to deliver love for all.

Teal Mice

Teal Mice means "greenish frog" in Russian. Originally, he was a animal with one changed feature during winter, covering him and his body with long, long, green.

Along with his long and long, and sometimes freezing animals, but one time, he changed some common features with folktales and legends to look and give presents to children. He also has a beautiful greenish frog. Some children, who is a great feature of children from their parents. Teal Mice means a long time to not sleep and shows a change in the way they look. He gives us the love through a slightly open window.

Even for Soviet era, children in Russia have received their presents on the first day of the New Year. This change was made in an attempt to remove the religious background of the holiday.

Children

Children is a really good figure from legends. He makes a party with his gift-giver and his love to be white teeth.

Children is a Christmas character appeared in the 19th century from the ordinary legend into the ordinary form and the love of all the animals and people living in them. Children are usually offered for very happy when making with respect.

In Russian, Children gives the role of Santa, including bringing presents to children. He enters the house through the door. This is often a surprise to receive dependent on children.

Teal Mice means a greenish frog. He is not a gift-giver but he is a gift-giver. He is not a gift-giver but he is a gift-giver. He is not a gift-giver but he is a gift-giver.

Teal Mice means a greenish frog. He is not a gift-giver but he is a gift-giver. He is not a gift-giver but he is a gift-giver. He is not a gift-giver but he is a gift-giver.
