Singapore Forgotten Places:

Raffles Renounced: Towards a Merdeka History Alfian Sa'at, Faris Joraimi, Sai Siew Min, 2022-08-19 Why did independent Singapore celebrate two hundred years of its founding as a British colony in 2019? What does Merdeka mean for Singaporeans? And what are the possibilities of doing decolonial history in Singapore? Raffles Renounced: Towards a Merdeka History presents essays by historians, literary scholars and artists which grapple with these questions. The volume also reproduces some of the source material used in the play Merdeka Wild Rice 2019. Taken together, the book shows how the contradictions of independent nationhood haunt Singaporeans' collective and personal stories about Merdeka. It points to the need for a Merdeka history, an open and fearless culture of historical reckoning that not only untangles us from colonial narratives but proposes emancipatory possibilities.

One Hundred Years of Singapore Walter Makepeace, Gilbert

Edward Brooke, Roland St. John Braddell, 1921 Globalisation and the Politics of Forgetting Yong-Sook Lee, Brenda S.A.

Yeoh, 2018-10-24 In both academic scholarship and the popular imagination, the globality of modern society has been represented by global cities as the corporate and financial epicentres for capital accumulation, cosmopolitan cultures and innovative change. This has created an image of the globalised world as empty beyond cities which make it into the global league as paradigmatic celebrity cities. As a counterpoint, this book gives interpretive weight elsewhere in other places, cities and regions, drawing on a range of examples from both the developed and developing worlds. This book was previously published as a special issue of the journal Urban Studies.

Geerken, 2015-05-05 The large house gecko called tokek is regarded as a lucky talisman by the Indonesians. When its Toke resounds in the night, they count how many times it calls both in town and in the country and this number determines how lucky the call is. Only an odd number is lucky; seven is already quite good but nine promises the peak of success and good fortune. The author has spent 18 years in Indonesia and helped the young independent country in its development and construction on the sectors of telecommunications, electrotechnical and solar power engineering. Amusing and interesting.

events from his private and professional life during those years make this book historically interesting and also humorous reading for anyone who is interested in getting to know Indonesia off the beaten tourist track The author and his family had tokeks in both their house in Jakarta and their weekend home in Carita He often has heard nine successive calls and the prophecy was fulfilled Indonesia has brought the author luck and happiness
