Movie Roadshows Kim R. Holston, 2012-12-13 This work examines a film distribution system paralleling the rise of early features and persisting until 1972 when Man of La Mancha was the final roadshow to require reserved seating. Synonymous with Hollywood's star-studded premieres, roadshows were longer and cost more than regular features, making the experience similar to attending the legitimate theater. Roadshows often epic in subject matter, played selected usually only one theaters in major urban centers until demand decreased. De rigueur by the 1960s were musical overtures, intermissions, entre acte and exit music, and souvenir programs for sale in the lobby. Throughout the text are recollections by people who attended roadshows including actor John Kerr and actresses Barbara Eden and Ingrid Pitt. The focus is on roadshows released in the United States but an appendix identifies international roadshows and films forecast but not released as roadshows. Included are plots, contemporary critical reaction, premiere dates, production background, and methods of promotion, i.e. the ballyhoo.

Box Office, 1958      Media and Digital Management Eli M. Noam, 2019-01-23 Being a successful manager or entrepreneur in the media and digital sector requires creativity, innovation, and performance. It also requires an understanding of the principles and tools of management. Aimed at the college market, this book is a short foundational volume on media management. It summarizes the major dimensions of a business school curriculum and applies them to the entire media, media tech, and digital sector. Its chapters cover in a jargonless, non-technical way the major functions of management: First, creating a media product, the financing of projects, and the management of technology, HR, production, operations, intellectual assets, and government relations. Second, harvesting the product: created market, research, marketing, pricing, and distribution. And third, the control loop: media accounting and strategy planning. In the process, this book becomes an indispensable resource for those aiming for a career in the media and digital field, both in startups and established organizations. This book is designed to help those aiming to join the media and digital sector to become creative managers and managerial creatives. It aims to make them more knowledgeable, less blinded by hype, more effective, and more responsible.

Embracing the Track of Appearance: An Emotional Symphony within Box Office Top Sign In

In a world taken by monitors and the ceaseless chatter of immediate interaction, the melodic elegance and mental symphony produced by the published term usually diminish into the background, eclipsed by the persistent noise and interruptions that permeate our lives. However, nestled within the pages of Box Office Top Sign In a charming fictional value full of fresh thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by an outstanding musician of language, this charming masterpiece conducts viewers on a mental journey, skillfully unraveling the hidden melodies and profound influence resonating within each carefully crafted phrase. Within the depths of the poignant examination, we shall explore the book's central harmonies, analyze their enthralling publishing model, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers' souls.
