Literature and Social Media Bronwen Thomas,2020-01-31 From Instapoetry to BookTube contemporary literary cultures and practices are increasingly intertwined with social media In this lively and wide ranging study Bronwen Thomas explores how social media provides new ways of connecting with and rediscovering established literary works and authors while also facilitating the emergence of unique and distinctive forms of creative expression The book takes a 360 approach to the subject combining analysis of current forms and practices with an examination of how social media fosters ongoing collaborative discourse amongst both informal and formal literary networks and demonstrating how the participatory practices of social media have the potential to radically transform how literature is produced shared and circulated The first study of its kind to focus specifically on social media Literature and Social Media provides a timely and engaging account of the state of the art while interrogating the rhetoric that so often accompanies discussion of the new in this context

Memphis Ginger Scott, 2018-02-23

My mom always said it was just something about the way he moved. The same swagger Archie Valentine wore in the ring when he took his opponents down followed him like a halo everywhere he went. But make no mistake about it he was no angel. He was like a drug. My mother was his addict I never understood it how love could make you blind and convince you to drink the poison. Not until I met Memphis Delaney. At first it was the familiar form He's a fighter built like a god from the past the kind of man the universe doesn't make anymore. His eyes hide a story and every time I'm in his presence I want to keep reading him until I get to the end. And then there's the way he moves His boxing is violent but beautiful and his body is a seductive weapon. When he's in the ring he wears the stare of a man committed to the battle until his very last breath. He could end me turn me into her. Too much of him will leave me as a shadow and I've lost so much of myself already. But I have discipline. It came the hard way. Lessons learned scars left behind and trust stripped away from life I will breathe his air but I won't fall for a man like him.

The only boxer who's ever going to break my heart is the one who gave me my name
