Tutorial Ideas for Educators on The Run Michele Jarldorn, Cate Hudson, 2025-05-16 This professional book offers practical materials that provide fellow academics with tools to structure and scaffold learning experiences that reflect the practice context in which social work and human services are offered. It serves as a practical resource tailored for teaching academics in social work and human services education and it is designed to be useful for learning across other social science and education disciplines as well. The chapters describe the pedagogy informing the design of the learning activities and present and describe specific teaching activities designed to engage students with complex subject matters. Where applicable, some chapters include downloadable resources to be used and implemented by the reader in their teaching. This book is organised into discrete themes that include skills based activities, embedding academic literacy activities into teaching, social justice learning activities, small group teaching and learning online using case studies and vignettes for small group learning and embedding learning through games and arts based artefacts.

A Pragmatic Guide to Low Intensity Psychological Therapy Elizabeth Ruth, James Spiers, 2023-05-17 With the rapidly growing demand for mental health care, there is a need for efficient and effective psychological treatment options. Low Intensity Psychological Therapy has become well established in the UK. Improving Access to Psychological Therapies (IAPT) programme as a beneficial and versatile treatment option for mild/moderate symptoms of depression and anxiety. A Pragmatic Guide to Low Intensity Psychological Therapy: Care in High Volume provides a guide to Low Intensity Psychological Therapy from the perspective of the Low Intensity Practitioner. This book describes the Low Intensity role as part of a multi-disciplinary approach to psychological care. The authors use a series of case vignettes, personal experience and current literature to help navigate the context of the role and its potential for ethical and safe expansion. Offers a practitioner perspective on the efficacy research of Low Intensity psychological interventions in adult populations with a focus on working with diversity. Aims to support Low Intensity Practitioners in developing competency within the role with a focus on reflective practice, supervision and personal wellbeing. Includes case vignettes and examples to explore the real world implementation of Low Intensity interventions in group and individual settings, including the management of long-term physical health conditions. Explores the benefits and pitfalls of the current role of the Low Intensity psychological practitioner within the IAPT programme. Discusses the expansion of the Low Intensity psychological practice to international regions.
