Musings on Markets: Articles from 2008-2014

Aswath Damodaran, In the ever evolving world of finance, clarity and insight are precious commodities. Enter Professor Aswath Damodaran, the mind behind the influential blog Musings on Markets. This unassuming corner of the internet, launched in 2008, serves as a platform for his insightful commentary on current financial events, valuation methodologies, and emerging trends. Damodaran's ability to break down complex financial concepts into digestible terms has made him a beloved figure among investors and students. Professor Damodaran, or Aswath, as he's affectionately known to his readers, isn't your typical Wall Street guru. His writing is refreshingly devoid of jargon, laced with wit, and grounded in a passion for demystifying complex financial concepts. Think of Musings on Markets as your friendly neighborhood professor, patiently explaining the intricate workings of financial markets through clear explanations, insightful analyses, and a healthy dose of real world examples. Aswath Damodaran is a distinguished professor of finance at the Stern School of Business, New York University. Renowned for his groundbreaking work in corporate finance and valuation, Damodaran has been instrumental in shaping the field's methodologies and applications. Born in India, Damodaran pursued his academic journey in the United States, earning his Ph.D. in finance from the University of Michigan. His early career was marked by a deep dive into the intricacies of capital markets and corporate valuation, a fascination that has remained a constant throughout his illustrious career. Damodaran's academic prowess is evident in his extensive publications. He is the author of several highly acclaimed textbooks, including Investment Valuation, Corporate Finance Theory and Practice, and Applied Corporate Finance: A User's Guide. These books are considered essential reading for students, practitioners, and academics alike, providing invaluable insights into the theory and practice of finance. His contributions to the field of finance have not gone unnoticed. Damodaran has been recognized with numerous awards and honors, including the Graham and Dodd Award from the Financial Analysts Journal and the Distinguished Scholar Award from the Academy of Financial Management. Aswath Damodaran's legacy extends far beyond his academic achievements. His dedication to teaching, research, and public outreach has inspired countless individuals to pursue careers in finance and has significantly advanced the field of corporate valuation.

Capturing Change in Science, Technology, and Innovation

National Research Council, Policy and Global Affairs, Board on Science, Technology, and Economic Policy, Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Committee on National Statistics, Panel on Developing Science, Technology, and Innovation Indicators for the Future, 2014-08-25. Since the 1950s, under congressional mandate, the U.S. National Science Foundation (NSF) through its National Center for Science and Engineering Statistics (NCSES) and predecessor agencies has produced regularly updated measures of research and development expenditures, employment, and training in science and engineering, and other indicators of the state of U.S. science and technology. A more recent focus has been on measuring innovation in the corporate sector NCSES collects its own data on science technology and innovation STI activities and also incorporates data from other agencies to produce indicators that are used for monitoring purposes including comparisons among sectors regions and with other countries and for identifying trends that may require policy attention and generate research needs NCSES also provides extensive tabulations and microdata files for in depth analysis Capturing Change in Science Technology and Innovation assesses and provides recommendations regarding the need for revised refocused and newly developed indicators of STI activities that would enable NCSES to respond to changing policy concerns This report also identifies and assesses both existing and potential data resources and tools that NCSES could exploit to further develop its indicators program Finally the report considers strategic pathways for NCSES to move forward with an improved STI indicators program The recommendations offered in Capturing Change in Science Technology and Innovation are intended to serve as the basis for a strategic program of work that will enhance NCSES s ability to produce indicators that capture change in science technology and innovation to inform policy and optimally meet the needs of its user community

Performing Homescapes Sally Mackey,Adelina Ong,2025-03-05 Part of the Performing Landscapes series Performing Homescapes is an edited collection comprising a contemporary exploration of performing many iterations of landscapes of homes Authors were invited to respond to a detailed brief with home to be deliberately reconsidered as homescape represented by landscapes sites and practices often outside and occasionally including a conventional home as house and intimate dwelling We wanted a diverse range of geographical sites to be represented and a global offer encompassing a pluriverse of homescapes Voices practices and epistemologies from the Global South and global majority were important to us including Indigenous ways of knowing and practicing This curated collection offers an expanded understanding of the performance of home scapes as a new intervention into the fields of performance and home scholarship Performing Homescapes moves beyond spatial meditations within rooms of a house to offer an original critical engagement with the social political ecological and cultural landscapes that shape and sustain affects related to the notion of home unhomeliness and even solastalgia While the impact of the social political and cultural landscapes on relationships with and within the house are implied in most academic literature on forms of performing home it is foregrounded in the chapters of this edited collection In addition certain chapters attend to the more than human human relationships with the Earth as homescape and the co creation of homescapes within and beyond dwellings Entrepreneurship Bruce R.
