Last Team Standing Matthew Algeo, 2013-09-01 Tracing the history of the National Football League during World War II this book delves into the severe player shortage during the war which led to the merging of the Pittsburgh Steelers and the Philadelphia Eagles creating the Steagles. The team's center was deaf in one ear its wide receiver was blind in one eye and partially blind in the other and its halfback had bleeding ulcers. One player was so old he'd never before played football with a helmet. Yet somehow this group of players deemed unfit for military service due to age or physical ailment posted a winning record in the league to the surprise of players and fans alike. Digging into the history of the war paralleled by the unlikely story of the Steagles franchise both sports fans and history buffs will learn about the cultural significance of this motley crew of ball players during a trying time in United States history.

The Man Who Built the National Football League Chris Willis, 2010-08-19 Founded in 1920 the National Football League chose famed athlete Jim Thorpe as its first president a position he held briefly until a successor was elected. From 1921 to 1939 Joe F Carr guided the sport of professional football with intelligence hard work and a passion that built the foundation of what the NFL has become the number one sports organization in the world. During his eighteen year tenure as NFL President Carr created the organization's first Constitution implemented the standard player's contract wrote the NFL's first ever Record and Fact Book helped split the NFL into two divisions and establish the NFL's World Championship Game started keeping league statistics and developed the NFL Draft. But Carr's greatest achievement was creating a vision for the NFL as a big city sport. By skillfully recruiting financially capable owners to operate NFL franchises in big market cities he created the solid foundation for the league's successful future. While the sport has grown to unheard of heights Carr's name and accomplishments have been lost and forgotten. The Man Who Built the National Football League Joe F Carr captures the life and career of this pivotal figure in professional sports chronicling the many achievements of a man whose vision helped shaped what the NFL is today. With unlimited access and complete cooperation from the Carr family including family interviews personal letters and family photos as well as NFL League Minutes Willis recounts the fascinating life and career of a man dedicated to the game.

4th and Fixed Reggie Rivers, 2004 Fix a Super Bowl I never thought it possible but 4th and Fixed is so chock full of NFL skinny that it sweeps you along from the field to the front office and makes you believe. Frank Deford

When I Need You Lorelei James, 2017-07-25 Rules are tossed aside when a pro football player joins forces with a spitfire cheerleading coach in New York Times bestselling author Lorelei James's brand new romance. Heir to Lund Industries and ladies man Jensen The Rocket Lund has three conditions when it comes to dating: 1 No single mothers 2 No cheerleaders 3 No medical personnel. So it makes no sense that he's wildly attracted to Rowan Michaels who breaks all three. Rowan didn't pass the rigorous requirements to become an athletic trainer and Vikings cheerleader in the hopes of landing a pro athlete. Been there done that and she has a young son as proof that football players and fidelity don't go hand in hand. When Rowan learns her new neighbor is Jensen

Lund the smoking hot tight end who takes being neighborly to a whole new level she s grateful for the team s strict no fraternization policy because the sexy man defines temptation But Jensen is intent on rushing straight to the goal line to prove to Rowan he s much more than just a player on and off the field School Activities ,1945 Sport, Spirituality, and Religion Tracy J. Trothen,2019-11-22 The research studies included in this Special Issue highlight the fundamental contribution of the knowledge of environmental history to conscious and efficient environment conservation and management The long term perspective of the dynamics that govern the human climate ecosystem is becoming one of the main focuses of interest in biological and earth system sciences Multidisciplinary bio geo archaeo investigations into the underlying processes of human impact on the landscape are crucial to envisage possible future scenarios of biosphere responses to global warming and biodiversity losses This Special Issue seeks to engage an interdisciplinary dialog on the dynamic interactions between nature and society focusing on long term environmental data as an essential tool for better informed landscape management decisions to achieve an equilibrium between conservation and sustainable resource exploitation
