examines the role of British and American public diplomacy in Pakistan It focuses on case studies located in two periods 1955 1964 and 2008 2012 during which there was both intense public diplomacy activity and increasing public hostility particularly towards the United States Putting forth this juxtaposition of the two periods the study provides an opportunity for a fine grain analysis to contribute to wider theoretical and comparative studies of public diplomacy as well as provide valuable empirical material The author argues that limitations in the effectiveness of public diplomacy arise whenever foreign audiences perceive that a state s foreign policy actions are illegitimate and inconsistent with its publicly proclaimed values US unreliability in the 1960s and unilateralism four decades later undermined its soft power despite the successes of individual public diplomacy initiatives Anti Americanism in Pakistan is usually linked with the aftermath of 9 11 but this volume will reveal that public mistrust stretched as far back as the 1960s The Pakistani public trusted Britain far more so that even when unpopular policies were adopted there was not such a steep decline in its standing Despite less funding UK public diplomacy initiatives operated in a more favourable environment than that of the United States The book focuses on five main areas of public diplomacy activities that generate soft power namely communication information activities educational exchanges and assistance volunteering cultural performances and exhibitions and high profile visitors public engagement These activities are examined in case studies from either a single time frame or covering both periods A pioneering study of British and American public diplomacy in Pakistan in the early Cold War and later post 9 11 eras this book will be of interest to researchers on Modern South Asia international relations public diplomacy and diplomatic history as well as those interested in wider subjects ranging from Cold War studies to sports history Annual Report of the Registrar of Newspapers for India ,1985 Reports for 1958 1970 include catalogues of newspapers published in each state and Union Territory The New Iranian Leadership Yonah Alexander,Milton Hoenig,2007-12-30 Since his election President Mahmoud Ahmadinejad of Iran has reversed the more moderate and pluralistic policies of his predecessor and projected himself onto the public scene with headline grabbing speeches regarding Jews and the state of Israel open defiance of the UN Security Council on the nuclear issue and an apparent vision of his country becoming the dominant power in the Middle East This book documents Ahmadenijad s background and rise to power It explains the current structure of the Iranian revolutionary government the competing centers of power and the major players In separate sections it details the terrorist groups funded and armed by Iran primarily Hezbollah and Hamas And it provides a comprehensive picture of Iran s apparent aspirations to acquire nuclear weapons as well as the related implications for regional and global security concerns Iran s nuclear ambitions are in direct conflict with the wishes of the United States the European Union and many of the governments of the Middle East leading to consequences that remain uncertain Iran is a focus of attention in the most recent war in Lebanon expanding its influence as a the major supporter and supplier of Hezbollah And Iran is cited in the most recent annual U S State Department report on terrorism as the country that is the most active sponsor of terrorism Press in India India.
