Statues Without Shadows

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

Statues Without Shadows:

Statues Without Shadows Anna Swan,2006-05-08 Anna grew up accepting that her parents were glamorous but mysterious figures who had both died by the time she was seven It was only when she was in her thirties that she discovered they had both committed suicide As she began to search for the truth about her parents she uncovered details about their fascinating and incredibly divergent backgrounds her father s family can trace their ancestry to King James II Her mother came from a Welsh mining family They met in 1950s literary London and fell in love But a year after Anna was born her mother was dead The book explores the nature of loss exile betrayal and Anna s own deep rooted instinct to refuse the horrors of her past and transcend the legacy of her parents This is a compelling moving story of uncovering the past in order to reclaim the future

Statues Without Shadows Anna Swan,2006 Anna s parents should never have met He was the son of down at heel aristocrats she was the child of a mining family In 1950s London they inhabited an idealistic but brittle world of writers and journalists Anna was born in 1960 as their marriage was falling apart By the age of seven both her parents were dead Brought up by her grandparents believing her mother had died of cancer and her father of pneumonia it wasn t until her late twenties that Anna uncovered the disturbing truth about her parents glittering and early lives
