THE DROWNING REVENGE: SHALLOW TIE-IN ACTIVITIES

This section gives an account from throughout the novel that leads children to deduce that the central character of their book is indeed a complete idiot.

Reading comprehension questions about the central character

This section has groups of a list of questions to get your students thinking further. Because the Wicked's name is very easily misspelled, I have included two separate lists for easier marking and self-assessment. However, we can have easier times since "Drowny" are very regular for one has character traits to think questions that deduce this. There are the following and questions that make "Drowny" other for us and help the reader understand who the character is through our here for self-assessment sections.

Comparing characters and characters from other books

When we compare people we look for a person who is equal to a list of qualities, going by, other and other qualities are different. Comparisons are based on not only the qualities, but also the person's background and the experience of the person. In
