Language in Louisiana Nathalie Dajko, Shana Walton, 2019-08-01 Contributions by Lisa Abney Patricia Anderson Albert Camp Katie Carmichael Christina Schoux Casey Nathalie Dajko Jeffery U Dahrensbourg Dorian Dorado Connie Eble Daniel W Hieber David Kaufman Geoffrey Kimball Thomas A Klingler Bertney Langley Linda Langley Shane Lief Tamara Lindner Judith M Maxwell Rafael Orozco Allison Truitt Shana Walton and Robin White Louisiana is often presented as a bastion of French culture and language in an otherwise English environment. The continued presence of French in south Louisiana and the struggle against the language's demise have given the state an aura of exoticism and at the same time have strained serious focus on that language. Historically however the state has always boasted a multicultural polyglot population. From the scores of indigenous languages used at the time of European contact to the importation of African and European languages during the colonial period to the modern invasion of English and the arrival of new immigrant populations Louisiana has had and continues to enjoy a rich linguistic palate. Language in Louisiana Community and Culture brings together for the first time work by scholars and community activists all experts on the cutting edge of research. In sixteen chapters the authors present the state of languages and of linguistic research on topics such as indigenous language documentation and revival variation in attitudes toward and educational opportunities in Louisiana's French varieties current research on rural and urban dialects of English both in south Louisiana and in the long neglected northern parishes and the struggles more recent immigrants face to use their heritage languages and deal with language based regulations in public venues. This volume will be of value to both scholars and general readers interested in a comprehensive view of Louisiana's linguistic landscape.

The lives of 35 actresses are explored in detail. Some are familiar Margaret Hamilton starred in dozens of films before and after her signature role as the Wicked Witch in The Wizard of Oz. Una Merkel nearly died when her mother committed suicide in 1945. Others are nearly forgotten Maude Eburne owed her career to a spectacular fall on the Broadway stage in 1914. Greta Meyer who played the quintessential German maid came to Hollywood after years in New York's Yiddish theater though she wasn't Jewish.    Louisiana Agriculture , 2016    American Recycler, July 2009 , a gay point of view For most of the twentieth century gay characters and gay themes were both underrepresented and misrepresented in mainstream cinema Since the 1970s however a new generation of openly gay directors has turned the closet inside out bringing a poignant immediacy to modern cinema and popular culture Combining his experienced critique with in depth interviews Emanuel Levy draws a clear timeline of gay filmmaking over the past four decades and its particular influences and innovations While recognizing the queering of American culture that resulted from these films Levy also takes stock of the ensuing conservative backlash and its impact on cinematic art a trend that continues alongside a growing acceptance of homosexuality He compares the similarities and differences between the North American attitudes of Todd Haynes Gus Van Sant and John Waters and the European perspectives of Pedro Almod var and Terence Davies developing a truly expansive approach to gay filmmaking and auteur cinema
