The Mayong Times-Chapter: One (EPUB Version) Hreeshyat Taukdar,2025-11-04 Mayong stirs where history's bones lie closest to the skin of Assam a haunted vestibule where time unspools and the shadows of dynasties thicken like monsoon clouds In this first chapter of The Mayong Times we descend into the heart of the Ahom Era when kingdoms triumphed and faltered not only by the sword but through clandestine pacts inked in blood and ash half remembered by priests and feared by princes This chapter is offered not as a sterile chronicle but as a living document each segment a lantern swinging through corridors where the mundane collides with the monstrous and where grief vengeance and hope tangle with the supernatural Here black magic isn't mere folklore it is history's secret mortar binding descendants and sovereigns to creatures both terrifying and familiar Baak Jokhini Bira and Ghorapak Mayong's own impossible progeny and wardens

Summer Shadows Stephen Leon White,1968 Out of the Shadows of Angkor Frank Stewart,2022-09-30 With nearly 400 pages Out of the Shadows of Angkor Cambodian Poetry Prose and Performance through the Ages is an outstanding collection of classic and contemporary writing The volume emerges from the thirty year effort of a community to gather Cambodian literary and cultural works In doing so they not only translated rare works into English for the first time but also helped to rescue writing lost during the Khmer Rouge regime 1975 1979 Readers will find the following and more Cambodian writing ranging over fourteen hundred years from the seventh century to the present translations of classical texts selections of modern Cambodian poetry prose and folk theater contemporary writings by Cambodian refugees and children of the diaspora living in countries from Australia to the United States Canada and Europe visual art including oil paintings by Theanly Chov and excerpts from a graphic novel by Tian Veasna The work included in Out of the Shadows of Angkor is just a part of the vast diverse repertoire of Cambodian literature created by those born in Cambodia in the camps and in new lands Soth Polin once told me What we have lost is indescribable what we have lost is not reconstructable An epoch is finished So when we have literature again it will be a new literature We hope this book brings out of the shadows some of the lost hidden and emerging gems of Cambodian literature past present and moving into the future From the overview essay by guest editor Sharon May Under Mountain Shadows William D. Frank,2024-02-29 From her world famous dude ranch in Washington state's Yakima County Kay Kershaw exerted tremendous influence on conservation efforts in the Pacific Northwest and tangentially on LGBTQ rights in the United States After gaining local renown in sports and aviation she established the ranch at Goose Prairie with her first partner Pat Kane a fraught undertaking in a region closely associated with the John Birch Society Operating under the guise of two spinsters Kershaw and her later life partner Isabelle Lynn guarded their privacy closely but local encroachment by the U.S. Forest Service and the timber industry forced them into the public arena as environmentalists In partnership with Supreme Court Justice William O Douglas Kershaw and Lynn spearheaded a decades long campaign to save the ancient forests and ecosystem of Washington's Cascade Range In the process Kay and Isabelle's devoted relationship proved a marked contrast to Justice Douglas' own turbulent love life perhaps affecting his perception of the law and his precedent setting judicial opinion in Griswold v Connecticut 1965 which provided the basis for major LGBTQ Supreme Court decisions in the twenty first century as well as Roe v Wade in 1973

Summer Shadows Siân James, 2005 African American Artists Performing for the Camera After 1970 Martyna Ewa Majewska, 2025-03-27 This study demonstrates how African American artists active since the 1970s have instrumentalized performance for the camera to intervene in existing representations of Black and Brown people in America and beyond

Majewska argues that producing carefully designed photographs films and videos via performance became a key strategy for dismantling the conceptions of race and gender fixed by US popular culture jurisprudence and pseudoscience. Studying the work of Adrian Piper, Glenn Ligon, Lyle Ashton Harris, Senga Nengudi, Maren Hassinger, Howardena Pindell, David Hammons, and Pope L, this book examines the ways in which these artists incorporate their bodies and personal experience into their respective performances simultaneously courting and foreclosing autobiographical readings. The strategies examined here, while diverse, all challenge conventional interpretations of performance art, especially those overdetermined by race, gender, and sexuality. The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history, performance studies, photography, and African American studies.

Saturday Review, 1876 Staging Decadence Adam Alston, 2023-09-07 Winner of the 2024 TaPRA David Bradley Monograph Prize. How is decadence being staged today as a practice, issue, pejorative and as a site of pleasure? Where might we find it, why might we look for it, and who is decadence for? This book is the first monographic study of decadence in theatre and performance. Adam Alston makes a passionate case for the contemporary relevance of decadence in the thick of a resurgent culture war by focusing on its antithetical relationship to capitalist-led growth, progress and intensified productivity. He argues that the qualities used to disparage the study and practice of theatre and performance are the very things we should embrace in celebrating their value, namely their spectacular uselessness, wastefulness, outmodedness and abundant potential for producing forms of creativity that flow away from the ends and excesses of capitalism. Alston covers an eclectic range of examples by Julia Bardsley, UK; Hasard Le Sin, Finland; jaamil olawale, kosoko, USA; Toco, Nikaido, Japan; Martin O'Brien, UK; Toshiki Okada, Japan; Marcel l'Ant nez Roca, Spain; Normandy Sherwood, USA; The Uhuruverse, USA; Nia O'Witherspoon, USA; and Wunderbaum, Netherlands. Expect ruminations on monstrous scenographies, catatonic choreographies, turbo charged freneticism, visions of the apocalypse and what might lie in its wake.

Shadows of Summer Catherine Brent, 1969-01-01 Expressionism in the Cinema Olaf Brill, 2016-02-19 One of the most visually striking traditions in cinema for too long, Expressionism has been a neglected critical category of research in film history and aesthetics. The fifteen essays in this anthology remedies this by revisiting key German films like The Cabinet of Dr Caligari 1920 and Nosferatu 1922 and also provide original critical research into more obscure titles like Nerven 1919 and The Phantom Carriage 1921, films that were produced in the silent and early sound era in countries ranging from France, Sweden and Hungary to the United States and Mexico. An innovative and wide ranging collection, Expressionism in the Cinema re-canonicalizes the classical Expressionist aesthetic, extending the critical and historical discussion beyond pre-existing scholarship into comparative and interdisciplinary areas of film research that reach across national boundaries.
