

Today I learnt...

- God promised Abraham and Sarah a son.
- Abraham and Sarah had to wait on God.
- God kept His promise, even though it came about a long time after God had made it.
- Sometimes obeying God means that we have to wait for His perfect timing.

While they were waiting, the three visitors shared some exciting news. They said to Abraham, "Your wife is going to have a son."

Sure enough, the next year, Sarah had a baby boy. They named him Isaac.

In the 1970s and 1980s my wife and I were privileged together with a group of friends John and Sally Dennis and Freda Dave Richard and Gill to lead a series of intensive Bible studies with a changing group of undergraduate students each Sunday evening during university term In preparation for a study we would meet one evening during the week to discuss the passage of scripture proposed for the following Sunday and we would share together what we had each learned from commentaries and other sources On Sundays one of us would present the passage for perhaps an hour and after coffee and biscuits we would have forty minutes or more of open discussion Those were life changing evenings for me I developed a deep respect for scripture a longing to live it out and a desire to share it The studies came to an end smoothly and happily when John and Sally moved to Oxford This prompted Margaret and me to leave our comfortable downtown church in Cardiff and offer to throw our lot in with a struggling small Baptist church in one of the Welsh valley towns I offered to take a lead in Bible teaching within the church and Margaret became involved in time off a group for older women and in a number of other community based initiatives After a few months I was invited to accept leadership of the church as a layperson an untrained Baptist pastor After much thought and prayer I accepted and so commenced the happiest period of my married life and the busiest period for the both of us Fourteen years later the church moved to larger premises led by a gifted local lad with reference to whom I often said I lectured the church Wayne communicates to the people For each service in the church I typed out an A4 essay on the Bible passage that had been preached and at the end of the service I stood at the door said farewell to each person and gave each of them a copy of my essay In this way I hoped that I might increase both the respect for scripture throughout the church and perhaps reinforce the memory of each passage presented in the sermon When Margaret and I resigned from leadership of the church I rewrote a series of twenty eight sermons I had given in the church I had these printed and bound together into a booklet and I gave a copy as a farewell gift to every person who attended the church These essays have been further edited and are now published under the title A Medical Scientist Examines the Life of Jesus The present volume is based on another series of sermons I had given in the church These too have been edited and rewritten as a series of essays under the title Lessons for Life Based on the Lives of Abraham Isaac Jacob and Joseph

Lessons in Genesis Hoon Kim, 2009-05-26 Creative Bible Lessons in Genesis follows the work previously done with other studies in the series What makes this volume different is that it is sensitive to the influence of postmodernism on today's culture and values it complements the widespread use of multimedia and is experiential in approach With a desire to be relevant it does not scan Scripture but intends to be scripturally thorough and accurate with an understanding that the power of the studies is ultimately found in the biblical text Because much of what is understood to be truth today is arrived to by subjective interpretation there is a strong but subtle element in the studies that highlights the Imago Dei image of God in man The blueprint of the Trinitarian God in man is perhaps the sturdiest bridge between postmodern experiencisms and ultimate truth and reality In order to emphasize these elements Bible studies include projection games helps and visuals Also many of the studies are highlighted by a participation which attempts to be close to the text account There are small group and large group elements that have been developed with the technologically savvy student in mind Creative Bible Lessons in Genesis follows the lives of various individuals in Genesis In a world where communication is less face to face and more screen to screen family breakdowns are the norm rather than the exception and role models often communicate debatable values an anchor for life can only be found in the God who does not change Human nature can only be satisfactorily understood through the image of God in man and that all behavior desires and actions people take are ultimate acts of worship and desire for God The return to the Imago Dei in man is the clearest way to present absolute truth to a relative society in that it is able to posit a valid argument for God and faith from an intellectual and logic platform as well as from a subjective emotional experiential platform
