Vorsten Februari 1987:

In the Shadow of Burgundy Gerard Nijsten, 2004-02-26 In recent years the study of medieval courts has become a flourishing field. The courts of kings and popes or of the Burgundian dukes have usually attracted most attention. This book offers by contrast a wide ranging study of a little known medium sized court that of Guelders in the Low Countries. Guelders offers an excellent vantage point for the study of European late medieval court culture. It was surrounded by the vast territories of the dukes of Burgundy and it felt the growing power of the Valois dukes yet the duchy managed to remain independent until 1473. Rich archival sources including a long and virtually unbroken series of ducal accounts reveal much about the rise of territorial or proto national awareness and about the role of the court in this process. The book also conveys the striking cultural and political richness of the court poised between French and German spheres of influence.

Dynasties Jeroen Duindam, 2016 A vibrant and broad ranging study of dynastic power in the late medieval and early modern world. Handbook on Global Constitutionalism Anthony F. Lang, Antje Wiener, 2023-11-03 This thoroughly revised Handbook presents an up to date political and philosophical history of global constitutionalism. By exploring the constitutional like qualities of international affairs it provides key insight into the evolving world order. Princely Display Marika Keblusek, Jori Zijlmans, 1997 From 1625 to 1647 Frederik Hendrik prince of Orange was stadholder of the most important provinces in the Dutch Republic. Frederik Hendrik and his wife Amalia van Solms created a royal court in the Netherlands the like of which the country had never seen. This book describes in full detail the rich world of their court. First the early history, daily life and the place of the court in a national and European setting is considered. The enormous cultural impact of Frederik Hendrik on architecture, painting and fashion is explored in the second part. Book Jacket. A Corpus of Rembrandt Paintings IV Ernst van de Wetering, 2005-10-18 Volume IV of A Corpus of Rembrandt Paintings deals uniquely with the self portraits of Rembrandt. In a clearly written explanatory style the head of the Rembrandt Research Project and Editor of this Volume Ernst van de Wetering discusses the full body of work of paintings and etchings portraying Rembrandt. He sets the different parameters for accepting or rejecting a Rembrandt self portrait as such whilst also discussing the exact working environment of Rembrandt and his apprentices. This workshop setting created a surroundings where apprentices could be involved in working on Rembrandt paintings making it more difficult to determine the hand of the master. Van de Wetering who is one of the Rembrandt experts of our day and age goes down to great detail to explain how the different self portraits are made and what techniques Rembrandt uses also giving an overview of which paintings are to be attributed to the Dutch Master and which not. In the additional catalogue the self portraits are examined in detail. In clear and accessible explanatory text the different paintings are discussed larded with immaculate images of each painting. Details are shown where possible as well as the results of modern day technical imaging like X radiography. This work of art history and art research should be part of every serious art historical institute, university or museum. Nowhere in the art history have all
