

Time and Place Change

How to Use Prepositions to Indicate Time and Place Changes

- "In"

Used to indicate a specific period or time frame, e.g.,

"We'll be there in five minutes."

- "To"

Used to indicate movement towards a specific location, e.g., "I'm going to the park."

- "On"

Used to indicate a specific day or date, e.g., "The party is on Saturday."

- "Between"

Used to indicate a period or time frame between two points, e.g., "The meeting is between 2 pm and 4 pm."

- "From"

Used to indicate movement away from a specific location, e.g., "I'm coming from the store."

- "At"

Used to indicate a specific time, e.g., "I'll meet you at 3 pm."

Common Mistakes

- Expressing time and place changes is using the wrong preposition. For example, using "in" instead of "at" or "on" instead of "to." It's essential to understand the correct usage of each preposition to convey the intended meaning accurately.

- Placing time and place phrases in the wrong order within a sentence. As mentioned earlier, the placement of these phrases can affect meaning, so it's crucial to pay attention to their order.
