What Makes a Monet a Monet? Richard Mühlberger, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),1993 Explores such art topics as style composition color and subject matter as they relate to twelve works by Monet

What Makes a Monet a Monet? Richard Mühlberger,Claude Monet,1994-03-01 Monet's Minutes André Dombrowski,2023-01-01 A stunning exploration of the vital links between Claude Monet's Impressionism and the time technologies that helped define modernity in the nineteenth century Monet's Minutes is a revelatory account charting the relationship between the works of Claude Monet 1840 1926 founder of French Impressionism and one of the world's best known painters and the modern experience of time Andr Dombrowski illuminates Monet's celebration of instantaneity in the context of the late nineteenth century time technologies that underwrote it Monet's version of Impressionism demonstrated an acute awareness of the particularly modern pressures of time but until now scholars have not examined the histories and technologies of time and timekeeping that informed Impressionism's major stylistic shifts Arguing that the fascination with instantaneity rejected the dulling cultures of newly routinized and standardized time Monet's Minutes traces the evolution of Monet's art to what were then seismic shifts in the shape of time itself In each chapter Dombrowski focuses on the connections between a set of Monet's works and a specific technology or experience of time while providing the voices of period critics responding to Impressionism Grounded in exceptional research and analyses this book offers new interpretations of key works by Monet and a fresh perspective on late nineteenth century art society and modern temporality

Monnett Family Genealogy ,1911 The Age of the Avant-garde Hilton Kramer,2017-07-12 Hilton Kramer well known as perhaps the most perceptive courageous and influential art critic in America is also the founder and co editor with Roger Kimball of The New Criterion This comprehensive book collects a sizable selection of his early essays and reviews published in Artforum Commentary Arts Magazine The New York Review of Books and The Times and thus constituted his first complete statement about art and the art world The principal focus is on the artists and movements of the last hundred years the Age of the Avant Garde that begins in the nineteenth century with Realism and Impressionism Most of the major artists of this rich period from Monet and Degas to Jackson Pollock and Claes Oldenburg are discussed and often drastically reevaluated A brilliant introductory essay traces the rise and fall of the avant garde as a historical phenomenon and examines some of the cultural problems which the collapse of the avant garde poses for the future of art In addition there are chapters on art critics museums the relation of avant garde art to radical politics and on the growth of photography as a fine art This collection is not intended to be the last word on one of the greatest as well as one of the most complex periods in the history of the artistic imagination The essays and reviews gathered here were written in response to particular occasions and for specific deadlines in the conviction that a start in the arduous task of critical revaluation needed to be made not because a critical theory prescribed it but because our experience compelled it      Corot and His Friends Everard Meynell,1909      American Motorcyclist and Bicyclist ,1928      Critical Readings in Impressionism and Post-Impressionism Mary Tompkins Lewis,2007-03-15 The essays in this wide ranging text capture the theoretical range and scholarly rigor of criticism that has fundamentally transformed the study of French Impressionist and Post Impressionist art

Why I Hate Modern Art Eli Levin,2016-01-28 For over 100 years Modern Art has received almost universal praise The author Eli Levin takes exception to this received wisdom Mr Levin is of the opinion that fine art has been in accelerating decline for a century and a half He follows the changes in style from Courbet to Warhol analyzing the works of well known artists and pointing to a loss of technical ability visualization and human concern The author discerns a pattern in which each avant garde movement rejects the previous one with a relentless narrowing of options      The Studio ,1908      Weaving in

Steinberg series focusing on modern artists Leo Steinberg was one of the most original art historians of the twentieth century known for taking interpretive risks that challenged the profession by overturning reigning orthodoxies In essays and lectures ranging from old masters to modern art he combined scholarly erudition with eloquent prose that illuminated his subject and a credo that privileged the visual evidence of the image over the literature written about it His writings sometimes provocative and controversial remain vital and influential reading Steinberg s perceptions evolved from long hard looking at his objects of study Almost everything he wrote included passages of formal analysis that were always put into the service of interpretation Following the series publication on Pablo Picasso this volume focuses on other modern artists including C zanne Monet Matisse Max Ernst Jasper Johns Robert Rauschenberg Roy Lichtenstein Hans Haacke and Jeff Koons Included are seven unpublished lectures and essays Steinberg s landmark essay Encounters with Rauschenberg a survey of twentieth century sculpture and an examination of the role of authorial predilections in critical writing The final chapter presents a collection of Steinberg s humorous pieces witty forays penned for his own amusement Modern Art is the fifth and final volume in a series that presents Steinberg s writings selected and edited by his longtime associate Sheila
