The Oxford Book of Adventure Stories Joseph Bristow, 1995 The love of adventure and of mystery and of a good fight lingers in the minds of men and women Thus wrote Andrew Lang in 1887 and the enduring popularity of a genre that was in its heyday at the turn of the century shows no sign of waning This anthology brings together 23 of the best adventure stories from the zenith of empire to our present fragmented post colonial world Pitched against the unknown against the forces of nature and against man s own treachery the protagonists courage and heroism are put to the test In settings that range from desert islands to the Java Sea from war torn Europe to deepest Africa and from India to the Canadian wastes heroes battle not only for self preservation but in defence of country and culture As the old certainties faded with the loss of empire so moral complexity and literary sophistication grew and the very notion of adventure is challenged in fine stories by Paul Bowles Tim O Brien and Margaret Atwood As well as being an exhilarating collection of classic tales by such masters as Rudyard Kipling Jack London John Buchan and Zane Grey and featuring the intrepid Biggles The Oxford Book of Adventure Stories offers an historical survey of a literature that holds up a mirror to the modern age
