Ashford,2025-11-13 When Love is Not Enough Reflections on Marital Tug of War is a compelling and deeply insightful guide that explores the hidden reasons why marriages unravel even when love still exists Too often couples believe that love alone can carry them through life's challenges But the truth is relationships demand far more communication trust respect emotional intimacy financial compatibility and shared goals When these elements weaken love can become overshadowed by conflict disappointment and disconnection This book unpacks the most common and overlooked catalysts for divorce offering readers a thoughtful reflection on the complexities of modern marriage Each chapter examines a core area of strain ranging from communication breakdowns and lost intimacy to financial dishonesty toxic in-law dynamics chronic conflict and unrealistic expectations With clarity and compassion it shows how these issues slowly erode the bond between partners often leaving couples caught in a tug of war where love is present but no longer enough to sustain the relationship Whether it's infidelity emotional betrayal sexual disconnect or the pressures of social media the book highlights how external influences and internal struggles collide to reshape marriages It also shines a light on more silent yet equally destructive forces such as grudges resentment emotional neglect and fading romance By breaking down these patterns readers gain a deeper understanding of the challenges couples face and why so many relationships falter despite genuine affection Written in a clear engaging and conversational style When Love is Not Enough is not a cold analysis of marital statistics nor is it a sentimental romance manual Instead it is a reflection on real life dynamics a roadmap of the pitfalls and challenges that couples often fail to anticipate It emphasizes that love while essential must be supported by honesty transparency effort and mutual respect if a marriage is to thrive This book is perfect for Individuals reflecting on their own relationships and seeking clarity Couples navigating ongoing struggles who want to understand the deeper issues at play Readers who want to explore the psychology of marriage divorce and long term commitment Anyone interested in why relationships succeed falter or collapse despite the presence of love By the end of this journey readers will come away with a clearer picture of what truly sustains a marriage and why love though powerful sometimes isn't enough If you've ever wondered why relationships fail despite genuine affection or if you're seeking to understand the tug of war between love and life's realities this book provides the thoughtful insight you've been searching for
