The Creative Vision of Bessie Head Coreen Brown, 2003 This book is an exploration of the way in which Head's writing is her idiosyncratic response to her personal life Her desire to portray and yet subvert oppression political racist and sexist that she encountered in South Africa and Botswana led to a Romanticism born of her need to create an antithesis to what she perceived to be the reality around her. Her eagerness to discover a haven in her adopted rural Botswana led to a Utopia of her own making a literary resolution imagined not actual. A mental breakdown led to the creation of her greatest novel A Question of Power one which examines the depths of evil but allows also for the dawning of the heights of goodness. The appendix contains many heretofore unpublished letters that help to explain the personal compulsion that provided for Head's creativity.

Bessie Head, 1993 Achebe, Head, Marechera Annie Gagiano, 2000 Concentrating on issues of power and change this analysis of texts by Chinua Achbe, Bessie Head and Dambudzi Marechera teases out each author's view of how colonialism affected Africa the contributions of Africans to their malaise and how many reacted in creative progressive pragmatic ways.

Gather Promo Edn Tarner M, 1999-03-31 Bessie Head's When Rain Clouds Gather Alex McRae Potter, 2005 Living on a Horizon Desiree Lewis, 2007 Bessie Head's writing illustrates a fusion of styles subjects and philosophical and literary influences. This book explores this range by drawing both on postcolonial and feminist theories. Focusing on Head's acute sensitivity to social and historical experiences the book deals with Head's use of myths and trans cultural fictions that convey knowledge about her immediate world and the historical domains beyond it. In addition Bessie Head's autobiographical vision generates an exploration of personal injustices as well as the processes they signal. Hinduism and eastern philosophy were central to Head's philosophical vision and the book shows how this vision allowed her to explore existential questions and spiritual concerns in innovative and unexpected ways. By using language auto referentially and symbolically by drawing on myths and by developing abundantly textured metaphors Head produces fictions that manifest the notions of freedom and serenity she urgently endorses and that are as concerned with challenging the realities she confronts as they are with utopian imagining.

Motherlands Susheila Nasta, 1992 This ground breaking book will be especially valuable to women's studies black and third world studies and world literature scholars and students. Karla Holloway North Carolina State University Motherlands is the first critical work to compare and contrast women's writing in English from Africa the Caribbean and South Asia. Although critical attention has recently focused on and applauded the work of such Afro American writers as Toni Morrison Alice Walker Maya Angelou Gloria Naylor and others and although we are just beginning to look at the writings of Caribbean women there are many excellent women writers in other parts of the world whose voices are just beginning to be heard. Their writings are important to developing theory on writings by women of color. That theory in turn has opened a dialogue with and a critique of feminist theories about women's writing which frequently universalize in a manner that excludes women of color. This book is a major contribution to that debate. The contributors to this volume reexamine the mythology of motherhood already well explored in feminist literary debate applying these ideas for the first time to a burgeoning post colonial literature The writers discussed include Bessie Head Jean Rhys Ama Ata Aidoo Joan Riley Olive Senior Nayantara Sahgal and Nawal el Saadawi Each is considered both within her own mother culture and alongside her literary sisters worldwide The contributors are Ranjana Ash Elleke Boehmer Jane Bryce Abena Busia Shirley Chew Carolyn Cooper Margaret M Dunn Elaine Savory Fido Lyn Innes Helen Kanitkar Valery Kibera Ann R Morris Judy Newman Laura Niesen de Abruna Velma Pollard Caroline Rooney and Isabel Carrera Suarez A Teacher's Guide to African Narratives Sara Talis O'Brien, 1998 A highly readable and informative guide for secondary school teachers who want to induce African literature in their classes The Life and Work of Bessie Head, 2008 The Raghuvaṇça Kālidāsa, 1902
