Signed by the Soldier Heidi Hopkins,2018-09-10 T I M E as we know it is an undiscovered of and obscure thing Though despite being a century apart an eighteenth century soldier and a recently orphaned teenage girl have managed to conquer the infamous mystery that is time as through both the past and present their letters find a loophole to one another In the silver lit surroundings I thought I saw the distinctive blush of a velvet jacket all crimson and dark in this field of colour Though as I turned narrowing my eyes to seek such a sight I was faced with the dark depths of others any visible red gone Dance with me then came from behind and I spun facing what was a pair of blue eyes behind a mask of black challenging in their squint It wasn t a question but a demand of the highest order and I couldn t do much but accept sliding what I now realised to be a gloved hand through his The stranger or soldier as my dream believed yanked me to him and we twirled like stars through the dark crowd our eyes intently locked There were no words no conversation simply the sweet pecking movements of our waltz sliding through the night Author Note This book should be advised for an audience over 18 as it contains strong themes and light discussion on sexual assault
