Total Intravenous Anesthesia and Target Controlled Infusions Anthony R. Absalom, Keira P. Mason, 2017-03-01 This is a comprehensive and authoritative presentation of total intravenous anesthesia TIVA and target controlled infusion TCI. The editors' international reputation has enabled them to recruit leading experts from around the world to write single author chapters in their area of expertise. Total Intravenous Anesthesia and Target Controlled Infusions is the first multi-disciplinary globally authored volume on the topic. Providing a single source of information on all aspects of TIVA and TCI from pharmacologic modeling and the pharmacology of intravenous anesthetic drugs to practical considerations in the clinical setting and the requirements of special populations. Total Intravenous Anesthesia and Target Controlled Infusions examines the debate about the risks and advantages of TIVA, analyzes outcome studies and provides guidance on creating a curriculum to teach TIVA and TCI. Learning how to handle controversial issues in schools and other education settings David Kerr, Ted Huddleston, 2021-01-13 Learning how to deal with controversial issues is at the heart of education for democratic citizenship and human rights education. Highlighting best practices from case studies across Europe, this guide offers innovative approaches and practical tools to handle controversy in schools effectively. Controversy and controversial issues are at the centre and at all levels of our democratic societies. This means that learning how to deal with such issues must always be at the heart of an effective education for democratic citizenship and human rights education. EDC HRE That learning takes place in schools and other education settings as children and young people progress in their education from early years through primary, lower secondary and upper secondary phases into tertiary and higher education and beyond. The Council of Europe has an outstanding record in promoting education for democratic citizenship, human rights education and intercultural dialogue and in fostering and teaching about the importance of democratic culture. It is therefore fitting that the Council of Europe in partnership with the European Union through the Joint Programme Democratic and Inclusive School Culture in Operation DISCO, formerly known as the Human Rights and Democracy in Action Pilot Projects Scheme, has helped to facilitate the creation of this very timely good practice guide which complements the manuals Teaching controversial issues and Managing controversy. FCC Record United States. Webb, 2017-06-26 How are identities formed among social workers, many of whom perform complex, challenging and ambiguous public sector functions on a regular basis? Why does identity come to matter for professional social work? This book, the first of its kind in the field, examines professional identity in relation to social work by asking how practitioners think of themselves as a social worker, a professional self-concept often entangled in a range of relations, beliefs, values and experiences. Bringing together the perspectives of an internationally renowned group of specialists, the collection addresses a range of issues associated with professional identity construction and being professional in the context of a rapidly changing inter-professional environment. It introduces new concepts to social work including materiality enactment performance affect entanglement capital and worth to consider the vexed issues surrounding matters of professional identity in social work This will be an essential guide to all those keen to debate the challenges and possibilities confronting contemporary social work through the lens of professional identity whether they are students educators practitioners researchers managers policy makers or associated professionals It will also appeal to those interested in social theory organisational sociology and leadership as well as anyone working in related fields of health and education Times of the Islands ,2005 Open Education, Experiments and Experiences in Asia and Oceania ,1978
