Earliest Christianity within the Boundaries of Judaism Alan Avery-Peck, Craig A. Evans, Jacob Neusner, 2016-02-02 Twenty two essays written by top scholars in the fields of early Christianity and Judaism focus on methodological issues earliest Christianity in its Judaic setting Gospel studies and history and meaning in later Christianity These essays honor Bruce Chilton recognizing his seminal contribution to the study of earliest Christianity in its Judaic setting Chilton's scholarship has established innovative approaches to reconstructing the life of Jesus a Jew whose religious ideology developed and therefore must be understood within the Judaism of the first centuries Following upon Chilton's approaches and insights the essays collected here illustrate the centrality of the literatures of early Judaism to the critical exegesis of the New Testament and other writings of early Christianity

X That Ex Kristin E. Carmichael, LISW, 2013-01-03 Hell no It's over I am done Saying it to him felt so damned good God knows he deserved it Still deserves it So why is it that only a few weeks later I doubt if I can stand by what I said X That Ex is the long awaited answer for women who have left a bad relationship and don't want to go back It is incredibly common for women to leave partners who are emotionally unavailable disrespectful immature selfish or even abusive but then struggle to stay away Women might be tripped up by their exes schemes to get them back their own self sabotaging ways or even by our society which seems to glorify a just give him one more chance philosophy To their family and friends dismay huge numbers of women go back to toxic relationships wasting years and the possibility of happier lives on men who can't give them what they deserve If the post breakup world for most people were logical fair regulated and well defined there would be no need for X That Ex As most of us know however the time after a breakup is emotionally messy sometimes chaotic and filled with conflicting feelings motivations hopes temptations and realities that must be dealt with X That Ex focuses on this confusing time demystifying why it is so difficult to stay away from a problematic ex and distinguishing itself by making personalized predictions for readers about what to expect from their exes and themselves in the tumultuous time right after a relationship ends This book is a unique roadmap that guides readers through the sometimes perilous time when a woman's ex might try time tested tactics to tempt her back when self sabotage may make a woman her own worst enemy and when even our culture gets in on the action by making reunification seem reasonable

First Language Attrition, Use and Maintenance Monika S. Schmid, 2002-05-07 This book is a study of the L1 attrition of German among German Jews who emigrated to anglophone countries under the Nazi regime It places the study of language attrition within the historical and sociocultural framework of Weimar and Nazi Germany applying issues of identity and identification to first language loss and maintenance Morphosyntactic features of German are looked at in free spoken discourse in an analysis of both interferences or errors and their overall correct use The picture of L1 proficiency which emerges from these investigations is then related to a taxonomy of intensity of persecution clearly demonstrating this to be the decisive factor in language attrition while showing other factors such as age at emigration and intermediate use to be inconclusive In order to give a full and tangible picture of language attrition and maintenance the book comes with an Audio CD featuring excerpts from more than twenty of the interviews analyzed Dr.

Gellersen,1999-09-15 Truly personal handheld and wearable technologies should be small and unobtrusive and allow access to information and computing most of the time and in most circumstance Complimentary environment based technologies make artifacts of our surrounding world computationally accessible and facilitate use of everyday environments as a ubiquitous computing interface The International Symposium on Handheld and Ubiquitous Computing held for the first time in September 1999 was initiated to investigate links and synergies in these developments and to relate advances in personal technologies to those in environment based technologies The HUC 99 Symposium was organised by the University of Karlsruhe in particular by the Telecooperation Office TecO of the Institute for Telematics in close collaboration with ZKM Karlsruhe which generously hosted the event in its truly inspiring Center for Arts and Media Technology The symposium was supported by the Association of Computing Machinery ACM and the German Computer Society Gesellschaft f r Informatik GI and held in cooperation with a number of special interest groups of these scientific societies HUC 99 attracted a large number of paper submissions from which the international programme committee selected 23 high quality contributions for presentation at the symposium and for inclusion in these proceedings In addition posters were solicited to provide an outlet for novel ideas and late breaking results selected posters are also included with these proceedings The technical programme was further complemented by four invited keynote addresses and two panel sessions     The Law Journal Reports ,1912     Munsey's Magazine ,1917     Official Report of Debates, House of Commons Canada. African-Centred Management Education David N. Abdulai,2016-04-01 In African Centred Management Education Professor Abdulai looks critically at the failings of management education in Africa and how that has impacted growth and development efforts especially at this critical stage in the continent s positive growth and development trajectory He concludes that Africa s current positive economic growth cannot be sustained without a significant contribution from its human capital He adds that the outstanding economic record of Asian economies in recent decades dramatically illustrates how important human capital is to growth These countries lacking natural resources and importing practically all their energy requirements have grown rapidly by relying on a well trained educated and conscientious workforce Professor Abdulai believes that Africa too can sustain its current growth and development by effectively combining its abundant natural resources with its human capital to attain its economic development but this will require an African cadre of well trained managers at the helm of both private and public sector institutions For this to become a reality management education in Africa will have to play a significant role but the author argues that it cannot be effective by continually mimicking the West in the programmes it delivers It must come up with innovative and relevant pedagogy that will address the special challenges that the continent faces and deliver an African centred management education As well as pointing to the failures of management education in Africa Abdulai offers suggestions as to how to make management education really contribute to the education of Africans in order to sustain current and future development     Ants, Bees, and Wasps Sir John Lubbock,1888     History of Friedrich II. of Prussia Thomas Carlyle,1873     A Homiletic Encyclopaedia of Illustrations in Theology and Morals Robert Aitkin Bertram,1889     The English Reports ,1914
