What makes a Raphael a Raphael? Richard Mühlberger, Raphael, 1993    What Makes a Raphael a Raphael? Richard Mühlberger, Raphael, 1994-04-01    Raphael's Ostrich Una Roman D'Elia, 2016-04-27 Raphael's Ostrich begins with a little studied aspect of Raphael's painting the ostrich which appears as an attribute of Justice painted in the Sala di Costantino in the Vatican Una Roman D'Elia traces the cultural and artistic history of the ostrich from its appearances in ancient Egyptian hieroglyphs to the menageries and grotesque ornaments of sixteenth century Italy Following the complex history of shifting interpretations given to the ostrich in scientific literary religious poetic and satirical texts and images D'Elia demonstrates the rich variety of ways in which people made sense of this living monster which was depicted as the embodiment of heresy stupidity perseverance justice fortune gluttony and other virtues and vices Because Raphael was revered as a god of art artists imitated and competed with his ostrich while religious and cultural critics complained about the potential for misinterpreting such obscure imagery This book not only considers the history of the ostrich but also explores how Raphael's painting forced viewers to question how meaning is attributed to the natural world a debate of central importance in early modern Europe at a time when the disciplines of modern art history and natural history were developing The strangeness of Raphael's ostrich situated at the crossroads of art religion myth and natural history both reveals lesser known sides of Raphael's painting and illuminates major cultural shifts in attitudes toward nature and images in the Renaissance More than simply an examination of a single artist or a single subject Raphael's Ostrich offers an accessible erudite and charming alternative to Vasari's pervasive model of the history of sixteenth century Italian art    The Matter of Mind Christopher Braider, 2017-01-23 What influence did Ren Descartes' concept of mind-body dualism have on early modern conceptions of the self In The Matter of Mind Christopher Braider challenges the presumed centrality of Descartes' groundbreaking theory to seventeenth century French culture He details the broad opposition to rational self-government among Descartes' contemporaries and attributes conventional links between Descartes and the myth of the modern subject to post-structuralist assessments The Matter of Mind presents studies drawn from a range of disciplines and examines the paintings of Nicolas Poussin the drama of Pierre Corneille and the theology of Blaise Pascal Braider argues that if early modern thought converged on a single model then it was the experimental picture based on everyday experience proposed by Descartes' sceptical adversary Michel de Montaigne Forceful and provocative The Matter of Mind will encourage lively debate on the norms and discourses of seventeenth century philosophy    Raphael's Poetics David Rijser, 2025-10-01 Raphael's Poetics applies strategies of interpretation implicit in antique poetry to the visual art of the Renaissance concentrating on Raphael's Roman works and their cultural context Until recently scholarly discussion was dominated by the application of Renaissance literary theory to visual arts obscuring the fact that Renaissance humanists who contributed to literary theory were in the first instance and almost without exception poets rather than theorists To counter the tendency towards theory the hermeneutic rules implicit in their poetry and thus the poetry itself is brought to the fore by this study as a hermeneutical tool By focusing on the interaction between the work of art and its public Rijser offers innovative interpretations of canonical works and important insights into the cultural history of the early modern period Reconstructing a visual grammar and defining the context in which Raphael s art functioned this study illuminates contemporary significances that have since been lost    The Encyclopædia Britannica Hugh Chisholm,1911    The Encyclopaedia Britannica: Pay to Ree ,1911
