When a Woman's Fed Up, There Ain't Nothing You Can Do About It...But God Can! Regina Mixon,Emily N Mixon,2022-07-09 As we share these writings with you we want to let you know that many of the same things you may be experiencing we along with many others have gone and grown through the process We share to encourage you that if God has given you dreams and visions for a brighter future for reasons unbeknown to you at this time keep going When a Woman s Fed Up There Ain t Nothing You

Can Do About It But God Can He allows us to grow up in order to go up He helps us to stand for that that we believe in and not cower down to anyone He teaches us about love kindness grace mercy meekness gentleness and allows us to extend these to others He even lets us know when it s time to move on to shake the dust from our feet He sends us to His people for a reason and a season and when the time comes for us to let go He lets us know As you grow through what you go through as you begin the journey of pursuing your purpose with passion as you go and grow through the various trials testing s and tribulations you will come to a point where you declare Enough It s one thing for you to declare it but when God says Enough He means just that Then you are free to SOAR and become the person He created you to be When a Woman s Fed Up when you are fed up you will begin to say No more No more settling for mediocrity No more going along with the status quo No more tolerating less than God s best for your life You will begin to say yes to embracing all that God has for you

When a Woman's Fed Up Latisha Bridges,2007-06 When A Woman s Fed Up follows one character s journey through the procedures normally involved in an effort to find keep or reconcile the loss of a bond with another person Through the perspective of Alexandria Campbell who starts according to her with everything that a woman could ask for except a good man the work explores the relative complexities of the human spirit Along the way issues are highlighted that relate to identity loyalty belief and courage in various forms Born into an above poverty yet below middle class family Alexandria is a preacher s kid who is forced to recognize that her main fault is men She provides an introduction into her life recalling that her mother once told her If I want things to change in my life then I must change first At the start we find her facing the possibility of a cold and brutal winter until she meets Glen in a somewhat bizarre way while attending a Valentine s Day gathering at her apartment complex They seemingly form a bond but when a diagnosis of pregnancy arises it leaves Alex questioning her future and avoiding Glen s calls An accident creates some tense moments but the other driver shows a degree of concern causing her to wonder Where was this man two months ago before Glen before this baby She finds herself feeling a bit overjoyed when Glen appears to be accepting and wants to be present for every step of the pregnancy Alex then moves through a series of challenges as she attempts to balance her personal and professional choices while dealing with the physical and emotional aspects usually associated with pregnancy One incident ostensibly leads to the death of Alex s only child and a friendship that spanned a decade Alex feels guilty and turns heavenward conveying that I feel that I am at the end of my rope Just take this pain away In the closing pages Alex decides to look forward to a future that she seems to be building on her own terms She recalls past experiences and hints at the underlying theme of the story thinking if all of this has taught me anything I have learned to first love myself and live for me This tale combines elements of suspense as well as emotion and is designed to capture the imagination as well as to provoke thought
