Where Children Sleep:

Where Children Sleep James Mollison, 2010 Where Children Sleep presents Mollison's large format photographs of children's bedrooms around the world including from the USA Mexico Brazil England Italy Israel and the West Bank Kenya Senegal Lesotho Nepal China and India alongside portraits of the children whose bedrooms are featured. Each pair of photographs is accompanied by an extended caption that tells of the story of the child in question about Kaya in Tokyo whose proud mother spends 1000 per month on her dresses about Bilal the Bedouin shepherd boy who sleeps out with his father's herd of goats about the Nepali girl Indira who has worked in a granite quarry since she was three years old and about Ankhojxet the Kraho boy who sleeps on the floor of a hut deep in the Amazon jungle. Photographed over two years with the support of Save the Children the book is written and presented for an audience of 7-11 year olds setting out to interest and engage children in the details of the lives of other children around the world and the social issues affecting them while also being a serious photographic essay for an adult audience. Its striking design features a child's mobile on the cover printed in glow in the dark ink.

Where Children Sleep James Mollison, 2023-09-28 Moving portraits of children from around the world paired with powerful images of where they sleep. The first volume sold over 20 000 copies and featured in the New York Times, the Telegraph and NPR among many other publications. It is now sold out. Volume 2 contains all new imagery. This is the second volume in James Mollison's well known ongoing photographic project that documents the varied conditions in which children live, sleep and dream across the globe. A compassionate commentary on class, race and inequality, the detailed photographs of the children and their sleeping arrangements are set alongside texts about their families, habits and hobbies from martial arts boarding schools to climate change protests, hurricanes and refugee camps. This new volume touches upon the fast changing issues of climate change and gender.
