Lees-Marshment, 2023-12-22 The Human Resource Management of Political Staffers Insights from Prime Ministers Advisers and Reformers explores the human resource management of political staffers and advisers who work for politicians Deeply grounded in the experiences of those who worked in the highest political offices under Prime Ministers Boris Johnson, Justin Trudeau, Scott Morrison, and Jacinda Ardern it makes the case for better management of staffers by illuminating past problems with the workplace such as extreme workloads, little work life balance, and lack of orientation and training. But it also offers a way forward by combining ad hoc positive experiences into guidance for future best practice. Drawing on interviews with advisers, staffers, and practitioners working on HR reform in politics in four countries the UK, Canada, Australia, and New Zealand it provides a research informed best practice guide for the staffers, advisers, their managers, and reformers which offers practical advice on how to recruit orientate and train manage and support staffers and advisers appropriately within the complex political environment It also conveys the highly skilled roles staffers undertake and the democratic contribution they make The Human Resource Management of Political Staffers is a must have guide to current and future advisers politicians and ministers Human resource management for political staffers is important not just for the individuals but to enable taxpayer funded staffers to perform more effectively which will in turn help elected politicians deliver for voters Chapters Chapter 9 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license
