Soul Spirit Discovering Our Roots In Cape Verde:

Soul & Spirit Vasco Pires, 2010-04-01 America is a land of immigrants We each have a unique story to tell Most stories will never be known beyond the first generation s memories To fit in with the dominate culture most immigrants were pressured into denying their cultural roots They never passed on their language or cultural histories to the next generation Memories are treasures we enjoy in our golden years We keep them alive by sharing with the next generation My greatest treasure has been discovering the roots of my identity my cultural base in the Nation of Cape Verde This knowledge gives me pride it adds unique perspective and value to my life This book expresses my quest to discover my cultural roots My grandparents provided support for the first generation born in America to survive and strive for the American dream They came to America to find a better life and future for those left behind In 1909 Nicholau and Rosa Pires emigrated to the United States from the Island of Fogo Cape Verde They had four children born in America Anna Margaret Roche and my father Vasco One daughter Mimi born in Cape Verde remained there In 1947 at the age of six my father brought me from Ohio to live with my Cape Verdean grandparents on Cape Cod My grandfather was Portuguese educated and learned just enough English to get his U S citizenship in 1946 In his house only Kriolu Cape Verdean spoken language was spoken The neighborhood was primarily Cape Verdean and most was from the same area on the Island Fogo Sandwich Road in the village of Teaticket Massachusetts was like a transplanted village from Cape Verde set in America My grandmother Rose Ke Ke was the friendly visitor of the community She would walk the length of Sandwich Road about two miles at least once a week to visit relatives and friends share the news latest gossip from the Islands and visit those who were ill She would often take me along The foundation of my love pride and longing to see Cape Verde was set This experience became my wellspring of inspiration for my expressions of Cape Verde and the sea Religious belief has sustained me throughout my life Cape Verdean people are traditionally Roman Catholic In my early childhood I was raised to be a Catholic I was required to attend catechism to be indoctrinated into the Church I received the sacrament of First Communion and then as a teenager the sacrament of Confirmation The Church served me well as a child but as I grew more mature the Church posed more questions then answers to life s meaning Religion to me is supposed to be a way to find answers to life s mysteries and live a happy life as a human being At age fifteen my search for the real meaning of God and religion began My mother s side of the family was Christian I then became a born a gain Christian till the age of 36 The Bible I was told was the word of God God loved everyone God knew everything and God was everywhere God was so powerful that nothing could stand up to him her My thought was why then is God limited to just one religious belief like Christianity Islam or Judaism Why does God allow so much suffering in the world In 1968 during a peace rally at Boston City hall a stranger gave me a newspaper called the World Tribune In it were articles about how people had changed their lives by saying the words Nam Myoho Renge Kyo In it were ideas about creating peace in the world one person at a time I never saw that person again but nine years later on Cape Cod

one of my students in my high school art class invited me to a Buddhist meeting At that meeting the World Tribune was being used to study Buddhism based on real experiences They studied the history of Buddhism and what it means to be a human being After several months of checking out the people the organization and the history of Buddhism I became convinced that this is what will give me the answers I have been seeking for the past twent The American Hebrew ,1927 The Canadian Baptist ,1909 Kind Words ,1903 The Friend ,1874 Backpacker ,2007-09 Backpacker brings the outdoors straight to the reader s doorstep inspiring and enabling them to go more places and enjoy nature more often The authority on active adventure Backpacker is the world s first GPS enabled magazine and the only magazine whose editors personally test the hiking trails camping gear and survival tips they publish Backpacker s Editors Choice Awards an industry honor recognizing design feature and product innovation has become the gold standard against which all other outdoor industry awards are measured Friends Journal ,2004 Video Source Book ,2006 A guide to programs currently available on video in the areas of movies entertainment general interest education sports recreation fine arts health science business industry children juvenile how to instruction American Grown with Cape Verdean Roots American Journals,2019-07-09 American Grown With Cape Verdean Roots 6x9 Journal Gift For Cape Verdean Roots From Cabo Verde
